KIWANIS KEY

Weekly Newsletter of the Kiwanis Club of Green Bay – Downtown
KIWANIS MEETING OF January 7th, 2019

On a cold rainy Monday we had a total of eleven members and two guests in attendance. They included Anne, Ben, Ann, Doug, Dave, Emmet, his helper Sharon, Maria, Vince, his helper Nancy, Bob F, Dal, and Bob R. Lunch consisted of Ham, Salad, Mashed Potatoes, bread, and Carrot cake.

Maria led the meeting, Emmet the prayer, and Ann the songs. We sang Happy Birthday and Auld Lang Syne. Three members had happy dollars, Ann for her trip with her family to NYC between the holidays. Emmet for his wife's recovery from her fear of driving. Doug told us his Boy's life joke of the week.

Our speaker canceled and Nancy, Vince's helper, was asked to tell us a little about herself. After graduating from UW Madison, Nancy and her best friend moved to NYC. She later moved to Chicago, San Francisco, and Denver before returning to Wisconsin with her two daughters. Nancy is in the process of completing the writing her third book.

Next week's speaker will be the Executive director of Green Bay's Boys and Girls Club.
