

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

The board was hopeful that we would be looking forward to a successful 2022 for the guild. Unfortunately, this isn't the case. At our January board meeting there were many suggestions to make the guild stronger, more interesting and meetings full of informative and inspiring ideas. We need guild members that are willing to step forward and be a part of the planning process. The board needs a VP of Planning, co-chair of Hospitality and Secretary to make this happen. We are here to offer our help. At last count our treasurer had only received 49 membership renewals, a far cry from the 120 members we had pre-pandemic. We have a quilt show in October, and I don't believe there will be enough members willing to volunteer.

It's resolution time again and I don't think there is one of us who takes this seriously. Just in case you do I have a couple ideas for you: Get organized, learn something new, use up that stash or finish those UFOs. My favorite is adding a label to each and every quilt.

If you are at a loss to think of anything at all, don't forget a charity quilt. We donate to several groups and believe that anything you make would be a perfect fit for any one of them.

Until next month....The biggest concern for any organization should be when their passionate members become quiet.

Starting With Silk: a Workshop with Julia McLeod

In this workshop you will learn how to use silk fabrics in your quilts. Gather a selection of silk fabrics. If you have none, start at the thrift shop: This class can be completed using a handful of neckties and a plain silk blouse or jacket. You can also use typical quilters cottons if you're curious to learn the two techniques.

In this 6-hour class we will:

- Identify silk fabrics and distinguish them from those made from other fibers
  - Discuss fusible stabilizers and how to use them
  - Learn an improvisational crazy-piecing method
  - Learn a foundation piecing technique.

We will draft our own simple muslin foundations. Many of you will complete the sample shown, measuring 20" square.

Starting with Silk:

Date: Sunday, January 16

Time: 12 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Location: Zoom

Cost: $30 LHQ member

$35 non-guild member

News from the National Quilt Museum 215 Jefferson Street Paducah, KY 42001 www.QuiltMuseum.org

Challenge & Change

The past two years have been filled with challenges and changes for all of us. We have felt it at home, in our communities, and in almost every other aspect of our lives. At the National Quilt Museum, we have reimagined many aspects of our operations, from how often we clean our door handles to how we provide services to both our local and worldwide communities.

We are thankful that so many of you offered the emotional and financial support that we needed during this pandemic period. From online programs to NQM's commitment to collect and present the work of today's finest fiber artists, our museum rose to meet evolving challenges with determination and innovation. Whether you made a gift, participated online, or visited the museum, we could not have been successful without you.

Here are some of the highlights from 2021:

- NQM added 7 quilts to our collection.
- NQM opened 19 new exhibitions, traveled shows to 11 other institutions, and presented the work of 300 artists.
- More than 22,000 participated in our online programs, such as Block of the Month.
- NQM safely served hundreds of school-age students.
- Since Kentucky's "reopening" in May, attendance at NQM has outpaced 2019.
- Matt Collinsworth was hired as the 6th director/CEO in the museum's history.

The National Quilt Museum opened its doors to the quilting and art-loving world 30 years ago. Since that time, the museum has remained a powerful and productive force in Paducah and beyond.

Since 1991, the museum has collected and preserved 660 of the world's finest quilts and provided exhibition space for thousands of artists. In an age when most art museums have struggled to include work by women artists, more than 90% of NQM's collected and exhibited works were made by women. Since NQM's opening, we have welcomed nearly 1 million visitors and presented more than 250 exhibitions. NQM has served 90,000 K-12 students and generated more than $300 million in total economic impact.

We believe that, with your help, our next thirty years will be even better. Our vision for the future includes more innovative exhibitions and programs, continued service to the quilting community, building new audiences at home and around the world, and improved and enhanced facilities. We hope that you share our enthusiasm and join with us to make NQM an even brighter star in America's cultural constellation.

Moda will generously match gifts made to NQM in December 2021 and
January 2022.
