

 TODAY'S "SHORT TOPIC"
WE'RE NOT LOOKING FOR YOUR EXPLANATION OF RADICAL MUSLIM
BEHAVIOR! WE'RE WAITING FOR YOU TO REJECT THOSE ACTIONS!

By Stephen L. Bakke  January 14, 2015

Here's what provoked me:

Moderate Muslim, Ahmed Tharwat, wrote an opinion in which his main complaint is that he is "tired of having to explain the actions of extremists as if they're associates." I think he's missing the point!

Here's my response:

We're not looking for your explanation of radical Muslim behavior!
We're waiting for you to reject those actions!

In the Opinion Exchange on 1-13, ("I am Ahmed: Nonterrorist") Ahmed Tharwat's main complaint is that he is "tired of having to explain the actions of extremists as if they're associates."

We aren't just after a "one off" condemnation, or a brief occasional reminder that you can't condone the actions by these extremists! Quite simply, we are after a swift and powerful rejection of the actions of radical Islamists! And we want to hear that from you and other moderate Muslims AGAIN AND AGAIN AND AGAIN
