

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Joins the United Filipino-Canadian Association of British Columbia in Dinner and Dance Event

19 January 2019 – Consul Arlene T. Magno addresses the officers and members of the United Filipino-Canadian Association of B.C. at their dinner and dance event to kick off the start of their activities for the year 2019. She took the opportunity to inform the attendees that the Philippine Commission on Elections has already posted the list of approved overseas voters and that they should start receiving their ballots soon. She encouraged everyone to participate in the coming 2019 Philippine National Elections by mailing back their ballots to the Consulate or coming personally to cast their votes.
