

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

The Apollo Club Inducted in 2017

Officially founded in the Twin Cities in 1895, but with roots extending back to 1887, The Apollo Club has grown to be one of America's oldest, continuously performing and well-traveled male choruses with an unprecedented repertoire of secular and sacred works supported by one of the world's largest libraries of men's choral music.