

Jerry Goldstone

Since 2009 Jerry has been an auctioneer and emcee for school and non-profit fundraisers and corporate events.

He's one of only 200 auctioneers in the U.S. to hold the designation of Benefit Auctioneer Specialist by the National Auctioneers Association.

He's also a popular stand-up comedian who opens for comics seen on the Tonight Show and Comedy Central.

Successful Fundraising Events

Auctioneer Jerry Goldstone will maximize the money raised at your next fundraiser while keeping your audience laughing. He will entertain and energize your guests to bid more for your auction items and Fund-A-Need and most importantly, feel good about giving to your organization.

Jerry puts the fun in fundraising. That's why he's one of the Bay Area's favorite auctioneers and emcees for fundraising events. Jerry's enthusiastic, likable style appeals to any audience.

Jerry works with you every step of the way:

- Pre-event planning meetings with your team
- Expert consulting and recommendations
- Advance event site walkthrough
- Volunteer auction staff training
- Event night Emcee and Auctioneer services
- Post auction debrief meeting
- Auction success report including analysis

Results

- Maximize funds raised
- Raise awareness for your cause
- Make your event fun!
