A Note from Rick: Markets at TLA on Tuesday held steady after last week's gains. This is a plus in my opinion, especially for the slaughter markets. The calf market actually was a little stronger this week. One thing that has changed a bit in the market is the number of Holstein bull calves on the market. There are less and less calves all the time due to many dairies breeding cows with either sexed semen or beef semen. It will be interesting to see how this impacts the Holstein steer market, both feeder and slaughter, moving forward. We have definitely been busy in the Draft Horse Office! Consignment deadline is here for the Spring Draft Horse Sale Catalog and we are super excited with the consignments that we've gotten in. Now the work begins on putting together the catalog. The Midwinter Horse Pull and Stallion Presentation is coming up on February 15th. This is always a great event for the community to get together and proceeds from the Stallion Service Auction and donations benefit a family in need in the local area. See you at TLA!
