From the Editor

Hello everyone

Thanks for all that showed up to plan for Springfest. Looks like everything is in order for another Great show. It will also be another practice round for the National Convention in 2021. Please continue to keep Lillian in your prayers as she seems to improve. Don't forget the meeting is Saturday. Hope to see you there.

Thanks,
 Clay

Heart of Georgia Corvair Club
January 11, 2020

On Saturday, January 11, 2020, a group meeting of Corvair Clubs met at the home of Clay Grant in Forsyth, GA. A wonderful meal was prepared by Clay. Heart of Georgia, Corvair Atlanta, Queen City, Vulcan and Corvair S.C were represented. The purpose of the group meeting was to plan the nest Springfest 2020, April 24 and 25.

Those attending from Heart of Georgia:

Frank Metasavage
Chris and Joan Law
Sharon and Keith Burkingstock
Ty and Janet Howard
Chuck Smith
Shirley Smith
Tommy and Joan Dorsett
Clay Grant

A financial End of Year report was given by Joan Law. Everyone was satisfied with the numbers. Lillian had prepared the report but was unable to attend due to illness. Most of the meeting was spent discussing the meals to be prepared for Friday night and the Saturday night Banquet. On Friday, Hamburgers, Hot Dogs, Chips, Tea, Cokes will be served.

Most committees for Springfest 2020 have been filled but more volunteers are always welcome.

Kelly Parker will be serving his famous Chili on Friday night. Ladies are to bring desserts. Please Ladies-use aluminum pans so there will be less to have to clean up. Clay will make the Peach Cobbler on Saturday for the dinner.

For those who might plan to come on Thursday, the Unicoi Lodge Buffet will be around $17.00 with coffee or water, other drinks additional. They do not do whole trout any longer. Trout would be $5.00 extra. Or you may eat on your own. Need 50 people to get this price.

From the Pres.....

Hello everyone, and welcome to the February edition of " The 'Vair Fax ". Just hang in there, it will be spring soon, and we will be able to take out our favorite toys and play with them. Although, we haven't had our annual snow scare yet.

Everyone please continue to keep our dear friend Lillian Law in your thoughts and prayers. She was due to leave the rehab facility on Friday, January 30, but went back into the hospital on Wednesday, January 28, to have some further tests run. I talked to Joan on Friday; she said Lillian has made much improvement, but still has a way to go before she is back to full strength. If you wish to send Lillian a card, please mail it to the following address:

If you didn't get to the Springfest organizational meeting in January, you missed a fantastic meal prepared by our wonderful host, Clay Grant. No one should have left the meeting hungry! Thanks again, Clay.

Most of the committees for Springfest have been filled, but as always, more volunteers are most welcome. If the quickness of how January sped by is any indication, April will be here before we know it. We have worked very hard to make Springfest one of the premier events in the southeast. I know we will continue to work hard to uphold our reputation.

Hope to see everyone at the meeting in February.

Keep them 'Vairs in the road,
and do something nice for someone.

Trivia will return next month. In its place this month, a cute joke!

An Amish family made its first visit to a shopping mall in the city. The father and his son were wandering around, taking in all of the amazing sights. They came up on a spot, where they saw two steel doors, sliding apart, and disappearing into the wall, and then closing again.

" Father, what is that ?" the son asked.

" I don't know,son," the father answered," I've never seen anything like that before."

About that time, the steel doors slid open, and an elderly woman in a wheel chair rolled inside, and the doors slid shut. The father and son watched as little numbered circles, that were lit up, moved up the wall, next to the doors.

Then, as they continued to watch, the lit up numbers started coming back down.

To their astonishment, the steel doors slid open, and a gorgeous 22 year old woman walked out.

The son asked " What just happened, father?"

To which the father replied, " I don't rightly know, son, but go find your mother."
