

2020 Brigade Lecture Series

Lectures are held on Thursdays at 7:00 pm. Seating is limited.

- March 26 “Yankee Ingenuity: Stories of Headstrong and Resourceful People”
Jo Radner, Freelance Storyteller and Oral Historian
Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities
- April 23 “Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum as an Educational Resource”
Andrew Bullock, Executive Director, Kearsarge Indian Museum
- May 28 “Ordinary Women Doing Extraordinary Things”
Peg Fargo, Educator
- June 25 “Television: The Art and Ethics of Manipulation”
John Gfroerer, Documentary Producer & Owner of Accompany
Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities
- July 23 Open House & Ice Cream Social (5:30-6:30pm)
Band Concert on the Lawn (7:00pm). Bring a chair.
Music by The 39th US Army Band—NH Army National Guard
- August 27 “The Life of Ona Judge Staines”
Tammi Truax, The Portsmouth Poet Laureate & Maine Beat Poet Laureate 2019-2020
- Sept. 24 “All About Concord Cemeteries and What Goes on Behind the Stone Walls”
Jill McDaniel-Huckins, Administrator for Concord Cemeteries
- Oct. 22 “John Marshall: A Conversation”
Richard Hesse, Prof. Emeritus at UNH School of Law & Civil and Human Rights Advocate
- Nov. 24 Official Remembrance of Franklin Pierce’s Birthday (10:00am)
NH National Guard Wreath Laying at Old North Cemetery
Reception at the Manse to follow.
*Tuesday

All programs are free and open to the public.

The Pierce Brigade

The Brigade Lecture Series is sponsored by the Pierce Brigade, the all-volunteer organization that saved and continues to operate President Franklin Pierce’s historic Concord home.

The Pierce Manse | 14 Horseshoe Pond | Concord, New Hampshire | 03301