None opposed. (National School of choice website). Marcia also mentioned DNR Grant workshop notice received via email.

Warrant List: John Wanke made the motion to approve the warrant list in the amount of $7,925.24. Ed Barr supported the motion. Motion Carried. None opposed.

Unfinished Business Motion Carried

Triple D Sanitation-Update: Marcia reported that she went to the District Court, Judge Barton came in, Triple D did not show up. Judge Barton was confused as to why the case was in District Court. Circuit Court is for issues other than none payment of fine. Triple D started paying on the fine, so they admitted guilt. There was language to show Judge District Court could order injunction. Miss Wheelock is on Court docket for this week, but on another matter. Karen called State of Michigan and got them involved. State DNR will inspect entire property. It was understood that Triple D had seven days to comply or injunction would take effect. DNR will only give point of view as to whether Triple D is operating a transfer station.

New Business

State Denied PRE's: The County and Marcia Rocheleau received State Denied PRE's. State hire company to audit the County. Township had a total of seven PRE-denials on the State's list. The State sent letters to residents who did not respond. Marcia ended up with four denials. The County had a couple of hundred. Marcia has a resident who says he can not afford taxes, they came uncapped when he received from his Dad.
