Stewardship Reflection

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." - ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God's plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

• FAMILY VACATION

Many of you have asked about our annual family vacation at Harrisville State Park. It has been a tradition in our family since I was young when we would take a big canvas tent with cots and cook on those grills provided at the park.

My favorite early morning memory was the fresh smell of bacon frying and coffee percolating. We always had to wait the required one hour after eating before we could hit the water. Once we did the day was spent at the beach in and out of the water pausing only for lunch.

This year we had 45 people using 14 campsites for all or part of the two-week period. I tied my all-time record by spending eight days with the gang.

One of the real blessings for me is to spend time with the younger members of the family. We see each other at family gatherings, but rarely have a chance to simply talk and idle the day away.

It was wonderful to see my grand-nieces. Josie is 3; Addison is 2; Caroline is nine months and Yoli is 6 months. The older two don't have much time for me in general, but I have discovered that if I offer to push them around in the stroller they are eager to let me. It is funny to see them occasionally turn around to check me out.

The younger two never seem to touch the ground. My brothers and sisters and their aunts and uncles always seem to be holding them. My chance comes at the evening fire when I can hold them as they sleep contented with life.

I have been very fortunate to be part of a big family which has always included me in their lives. I'm the kind of person who needs those connections and am grateful for this annual trip to renew the bonds that tie us together. I'm sure you have these same blessings in your lives.

Blessings to all!

Fr. David

To Kentucky and Back

I recently got back from a mission trip to Vanceburg, Kentucky. I left with a group from St. Agnes church in Freeland on July 9, and we got back in Michigan on July 15. I wanted to write a little reflection on the trip, and share some insights with this lovely parish.

First off, my perception of poverty, and of Kentucky overall changed because of this trip. I realized that many different forms of poverty exist. People can be poor spiritually, materially, emotionally, and in other ways still. In my mind I restricted poverty to only mean materially poor. While there are people in Kentucky who do not have a high income or a decent house, these people are spiritually rich. They exude joy, care, and generosity even with the little they own. Our groups visited several nursing homes and assisted living centers in Vanceburg and the neighboring town of Garrison. Those residents appreciated our visits not because we brought cash but because through our visits we answered their cry of loneliness. All people need to understand they are known, loved, and cared for; or in other words their life has meaning. There are people around this area who have this same cry.

Secondly, God showed me his providential love time and time again. We know that God speaks to us in many ways. He speaks to us through the Scriptures, Church teaching, private and public prayer, and through others. The people we met were so kind, compassionate, and loving, and I knew God was showing his love for me through them. They also gave me hope that joy can overcome bitterness, and struggling in life does not have to result in despair. The power of the Gospel and a relationship with Jesus Christ, the Father, and the Holy Spirit can shine light even in the darkest places.

I would highly encourage people to go on a mission trip. I gained a lot from this trip, and I suspect you also would too. We do not need to go to another state or another country to serve because there are people in our own backyard who need to meet Jesus. Is there a family member who is lonely? Can you meet some new people and help feed the poor? Can you spend fifteen minutes a day in quiet or mental prayer? We are all on a mission trip, and that is the mission of revealing Jesus in the world. How can you serve in the greatest mission in the history of mankind? -Marc Hopps
