From the Diary of Oakes Ames: Monday, November 11, 1918  Peace! War Ends!            Fair.            At 5:30 Blanche and I were awakened by the prolonged blowing of distant whistles. We knew that Peace had come, and that Boston was to realize the breaking of that tension which has held people breathless for several days. Amyas brought us the morning paper. There was no longer a suspicion of doubt. At about 2am the gladdest tidings the world has known were spread broadcast.					1 Off the Beaten Path Hike 1:00pm-3:00pm	2 Kids Mansion Tour 11:00am-11:30am  Mansion Tour: Building a Home 12:00pm-12:30pm  Mansion Tour: A Portrait of an Artist 1:00pm-1:30pm
