No. 1 Constitutional Amendment
Article VII, Section 4;
Article XII, Section 42

Limitation on the Assessment of Real Property Used for Residential Purposes

Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution, effective January 1, 2023, to authorize the Legislature, by general law, to prohibit the consideration of any change or improvement made to real property used for residential purposes to improve the property's resistance to flood damage in determining the assessed value of such property for ad valorem taxation purposes.

Yes
 No

No. 2 Constitutional Amendment
Article II, Section 5;
Article XI, Sections 2 and 5

Abolishing the Constitution Revision Commission

Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution to abolish the Constitution Revision Commission, which meets at 20-year intervals and is scheduled to next convene in 2037, as a method of submitting proposed amendments or revisions to the State Constitution to electors of the state for approval. This amendment does not affect the ability to revise or amend the State Constitution through citizen initiative, constitutional convention, the Taxation and Budget Reform Commission, or legislative joint resolution

Yes
 No

No. 3 Constitutional Amendment
Article VII, Section 6;
Article XII

Additional Homestead Property Tax Exemption for Specified Critical Public Services Workforce

Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature, by general law, to grant an additional homestead tax exemption for nonschool levies of up to $50,000 of the assessed value of homestead property owned by classroom teachers, law enforcement officers, correctional officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, child welfare services professionals, active duty members of the United States Armed Forces, and Florida National Guard members. This amendment shall take effect January 1, 2023.

Yes
 No

This Constitutional Amendment proposed by the State Legislature is designed to prevent County governments from being properly funded through property taxes. While we fully support our first responders, teachers, and military personnel, we believe that support should be demonstrated through better wages and benefits. This support should not be at the expense of our local governments' ability to provide services to our community

County Referenda

Ad Valorem Millage to Increase Teacher Pay and Other Purposes

For increasing teacher and staff pay, funding for technical training for students, and other similar purposes, shall the School District of Brevard County authorize a one mill ad valorem millage for four years to ensure student achievement, recruit and retain teachers and staff with competitive salaries, and distribute funds as statute requires to charter schools based on their proportionate share of district enrollment, with all expenditures to be reviewed by an independent Citizens' Oversight Committee.

Yes - For Additional Millage
 No - Against Additional Millage

Environmentally Endangered Land and Water Areas Bond Referendum

Shall Brevard County issue bonds to extend the Environmentally Endangered Lands program to acquire, improve and maintain wildlife habitat, wetlands, woodlands, and lands that protect Indian River Lagoon and St Johns River, and maintain and improve nature education centers, with citizen oversight, which bonds don't exceed $50,000,000 aggregate principal amount, bear interest not exceeding maximum legal rate, mature twenty years from issuance and are payable from levying annual ad valorem taxes not exceeding 0.1465 mills?

Yes - For the Bonds
 No - Against the Bonds

County Charter Amendments

Proposal No. 1 - Attorney Review Panel

The County Charter does not say what will be done when attorney review panel determines that a proposed Charter amendment is inconsistent with the Florida Constitution. Shall the Charter be amended to provide proposals found to be inconsistent with the Florida Constitution, general law, or the existing Charter be returned to the County Commission or Charter Review Commission for further action if any is to be done?
