

Valley Community Center – Biography – Colleen Squires, Board Member

Colleen is 64 years old, currently lives in Clarkston, attended Clarkston High School and retired in 2017..

Colleen is currently the Treasurer at the 6th Street Senior Citizen’s Center in Clarkston. Colleen’s prior work experience includes: owning her own business as Coleen’s Answering Service in Pullman, WA; DeChenne’s Marina as the parts manager; Trade Winds Marine as their bookkeeper; Thill’s Jewelry Store; Brook’s Repair; The Economic Development Committee; Colortyme; and Rent-A-Center.

Dorothy’s volunteering experience includes chairing the annual lighted boat parade on the Snake River through the Lewiston Chamber of Commerce in 1985, forming a committee, and working with Department of Transportation and the local Lion’s Club to put on the event.

Colleen was appointed to the Center’s Executive Board in February 2020 and brings a wealth of experience to the Board.