

Lindsey Carter Stone

Competitive Instructor & Costumer Manager

Lindsey Carter Stone has had 28 years of dance experience. She trained at Larkin Dance Studio in Maplewood, MN for 15 years. The styles she studied include jazz, tap, ballet, lyrical, hip-hop, pointe, contemporary and modern. Lindsey was a part of many production large groups, small groups, duets, trios, and solos at Larkin, winning numerous national titles and awards. She attended Eastview High School in Apple Valley and was a Varsity football and basketball cheerleader in between studio dancing.

She moved to Tempe, Arizona after graduating from high school in 2001 and attended Arizona State University for two years majoring in Broadcast Journalism and was a member of the ASU Sun Devil Dance Team. In 2003 she transferred back home to the University of Minnesota and danced her way onto the Universal Dance Association National Champion University of Minnesota Dance Team. Lindsey received her BA degree in Communication Studies from the U of M in 2005. Lindsey was the assistant coach for the state champion Eastview Lightning Varsity Dance Team from 2005-2009. She won the MSHSL Assistant Coach of the year award in 2009. Lindsey has been with SMDA since 2007 teaching competitive lines, small groups and solos. Lindsey and her husband Justin have been married 5 years. They have a daughter Audrey, a son Owen and French Bulldog named Oscar.