

Worth & Associates is seeking an Assistant Building Engineer. This person would be responsible for the proper operation, preventive maintenance, and general repair of the building, including, but not limited to electrical and mechanical systems, related equipment, and general grounds and premises. Reports to Building Engineer and Property Manager. Must be a team player with a proactive work attitude, and be able to accomplish tasks without direct supervision. Must possess general problem solving and analytical skills and be computer literate and physically able to walk, stoop, stand, climb ladders & stairs and lift/carry 50 plus lbs. Qualified candidates can forward resume to sandraw@worthsa.com