A spiral-bound notebook with a white cover is the central focus. The words "love stories" are written in a large, bold, red cursive font across the middle of the cover. Three pink roses with green stems are placed around the text: one at the top left, one on the left side near the spiral binding, and one at the bottom right. The notebook is resting on a white, fluffy surface, possibly faux fur. In the background, a portion of a light-colored, woven basket is visible. The entire image is framed by a colorful geometric border in shades of yellow, green, blue, and pink.
