

2019 Idaho Supermoto Results, Expo Idaho, Boise, Idaho

June 28-30, Boise, Idaho

The Treasure Valley Geico Insurance Supermoto weekend remains Idaho's only supermoto, and was held for the second year at Expo Idaho in Boise. It produced some excellent racing, and over $9,000 in pro prize money, (including a $1,000 cash bonus from Fly Racing) was given out for the weekend, making it one of the richest motorcycle races run in Idaho. After being a stand-alone event in 2018, the entire show was bundled in with Idaho's largest outdoor car show, Motorfest, creating a great weekend of racing for motorheads of all shapes and sizes.

A Friday night short track was run on a 1/10th mile outdoor oval, and it produced some tight racing, with California pro Hunter Brooks coming out on top in both the 450 and the Open pro classes, topping Mike Hill and Josh Mott.

Saturday and Sunday's Supermoto race course utilized a 1/2 mile route that differed quite a bit from last year's course, although it did tie into the short track just like the old track, but this version was longer and had more dirt sections than last year. Saturday belonged to Boise's Richie Reynolds, who clicked off lap after lap of smooth, fast riding to win the pro class. However, Boise pro Josh Mott, took the top spot on Sunday, edging out Reynolds. Racing was fast, tight, and fun to watch, and when the flag dropped, ending the weekend, not a single injury had been recorded. Not only were the pros carrying off some really solid cash, (the winning Open Pro on Friday night, for instance, got $925), but the trophies were pretty sweet too.

Helmets off to the partners for this event: Treasure Valley Geico, Fly Racing, Buck's 4X4, Suicycle, JMR, Rekluse, and Into the Horizon Adventure Tours.
