Privacy Notice

Our company pledges to make its best efforts to keep our clients' personal data and financial information confidential.

To process your application and / or administer your account, it is necessary that we collect information about you from the following sources:

- Your application and other forms that you provide.
- Information about your transaction history with our firm.
- Information received from nonaffiliated third parties.
- Information obtained from credit-reporting agencies and background check companies.
- Information obtained directly from court records, law enforcement agencies, offender registries and other public record sources.

We respect the privacy of our clients and will not disclose nonpublic personal information except as necessary for your account's administration, to interface with lending sources, or as required by law. Within our company, we restrict access to your information to only those professionals that need the information to provide service for your account.

For clients with whom we have a financial relationship, we reserve the right to report the status of the account to credit reporting agencies. Otherwise, only the information required by law or information that you authorize or request we provide to others will be disclosed.

In the event you have any questions regarding this policy, please feel free to call or write our office. Please help our compliance with Federal regulations by signing the receipt below and returning it by mail or email. Thank you.
