

“CREATING NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPERS” KICKOFF
Revitalizing Communities through Emerging Developers through Quality Training

Saturday, January 21, 2017

9:00 – 12:00 PM

313 Global Conference Room
College of Business, Southern University

The EDA University Center of Economic Development at Southern University, Comnet LLC, and collaborating partners presents Creating Neighborhood Developers (CND) training workshop. The EDA University Center for Economic Development urges all individuals who are interested in becoming a developer, neighborhood entrepreneur, contractors, community leaders, Realtors, to take advantage of this opportunity.

- Panel Discussion - The Process of Creating and Developing Neighborhoods
- Disaster Recovery Restoration: Raising and Razing Homes from Recent Record Flooding
  - The Legalities of Obtaining Blighted Property
  - The Need for Affordable Housing
- Adjudicated Process and Home Fund Grants and Resources
  - Construction Process

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

This seminar is open to the general public; however, advanced registration is required due to limited class size. To register for this workshop, you may call the College of Business, Southern University (225) 771-5640 or www.subruniversitycenter.org

