

Dispatcher Training Class

Courtroom Testimony for Communications Personnel November 14, 2019 8:00am

Location: Mission Bay Conference Center
1936 Quivera Way on Mission Bay, RM #TBT

You've been subpoenaed to testify in court for a 9-1-1 call you answered, or that radio call you dispatched. Do you know what to expect? Will you feel prepared when all eyes in the courtroom are on you when you testify on the stand under oath?

This course familiarizes public safety dispatchers, supervisors, and managers with the courtroom environment including the layout, personnel and appropriate attire and demeanor for witnesses. Scenarios are given depicting a courtroom proceeding. Upon completing this course, public safety dispatchers will be able to identify the primary courtroom participants and their roles in a courtroom proceeding.

Instructor Nancy Amador – San Diego County Sheriff's Dept. (Ret.)
POST Plan IV, Course Control #1107-30871-19001

What others have said about this class:

"Very good class!"

"The group activities were really good. Had a wonderful time with the mock court."

"Since I've never been to court, this class made me feel more at ease about being called to testify"

"Nancy Amador's knowledge of the courts and how dispatch tapes and incidents play an important role to prosecution were evident"
