

2014 Cleveland Open. 2013 Utah Championship Presented by Utah Sports Commission. 2009 HSBC New Zealand PGA Championship Pres'd by Christchurch. 2002 Louisiana Open.

2014: Finished the Web.com Tour season with a win, a playoff runner-up, a T5, seven top-25s and 10 cuts made

Had two top-25 finishes in his first six starts between March and late-May

Finished second at U.S. Open sectional qualifying in California in early June to secure his second consecutive U.S. Open appearance. Shot a 70 at The Olympic Club's Ocean Course and a 65 at Lake Merced GC to finish solo second, three shots behind medalist Alex Cejka. Missed the cut at Pinehurst No. 2

Six days after qualifying for the U.S. Open in San Francisco, won for the fourth time on the Web.com Tour, outlasting Dawie van der Walt in an epic Cleveland Open 11-hole playoff, the longest in Tour history and equalling the longest on the PGA TOUR. Started the final round three shots off the lead. Chalked up eight birdies in his first 16 holes to grab the lead by three. Bogeys on his last two holes and birdies by van der Walt on those same two holes forced the playoff. In overtime, he and van der Walt matched pars for 10 holes before Alker staked a 7-iron from 172 yards to 3 feet for a tap-in birdie and the marathon victory

Came to the Albertsons Boise Open having missed three cuts in a row. Ended up making his second playoff appearance of 2014. Opened up with a 9-under 62. Added rounds of 66-65-67 over the next 54 holes to establish a new tournament record of 24-under-par 260, with Steve Wheatcroft. Lost the playoff when Wheatcroft birdied the second extra hole

Posted his third top-10, a T5, at the Regular Season finale, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, to get to 10th in earnings

Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card at the conclusion of that late-August tournament, setting up his return to the PGA TOUR, where he was a member in 2003.

2013: Made the cut in nine of 17 starts, with a victory and three top-25 finishes. Won for the first time since 2009 when he captured the Utah Championship in a playoff against Ashley Hall.

Flirted with a 59 in the third round. Stood on the par-3 18th tee at Willow Creek CC needing to hole out for 59. Eventually parred the hole for a 61. Came back the next day and made it to 22-under par, good enough to get him into a playoff with Hall. Returned to the 18th hole for the playoff and made a short, par putt for the triumph after Hall knocked his ball into the water and bogeyed

Had a T17 at the inaugural Brasil Classic. Later was T19 at the Price Cutter Charity Championship.

2012: Made the cut in eight of 22 starts on Tour. Finished T4 at the inaugural Chile Classic, thanks to bogey-free rounds three of the four days. Wound up six strokes back of winner Paul Haley II

Final-round 64 at the Stadion Classic at UGA moved him up in the standings to a T16 finish.

2011: Made the cut in three of 13 Web.com Tour starts with his only top-25 finish a T11 at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open.

2010: Struggled with his game during the Web.com Tour season, missing the cut in all 21 starts.

2009: Earned his second career title, at the HSBC New Zealand PGA Championship, where he was a sponsor exemption into the tournament. He became the first New Zealander to win the national title since Frank Nobilo in 1987, before the tournament was a co-sanctioned event with the Web.com Tour. Ended the season No. 4 in Driving Accuracy (77.59 percent).

2006: Made the cut in 12 of 25 starts on Tour, with one top-10 finish. Completed the season No. 86 on the money list, with $62,070. A T29 at the ING New Zealand PGA Championship represented his best finish in his first 16 starts. Cracked the top 10 for the only time with a T3 at the Xerox Classic, thanks, in large part, to a 63 in the final round. Qualified for the 2007 European Tour in November.

2005: Made the cut in 16 of 22 starts on Tour, with four top-25 finishes. Collected $60,654 to finish No. 81 on the final money list

Recorded his only top-10 of the season with a T7 at the season-opening BellSouth Panama Championship, finishing four shots behind champion Vance Veazey.

2004: Made the cut in 19 of 23 starts on Tour, including seven top-25 finishes. Finished the season No. 60 on the official money list, with $101,331. Finished the campaign strong, making the cut in his final 12 starts. Season-best T4 at the Permian Basin Charity Golf Classic. His 5-under-par 283 total left him one shot out of a playoff eventually won by Charley Hoffman. Also notched top-10s at the Gila River Golf Classic (T6) and the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs (T10).

2003: Made the cut in 13 of 30 events on the PGA TOUR, finishing No. 163 on the money list. Notched his best finish of the season in just his fourth outing, a 17th-place showing at the Buick Invitational.

2002: Earned his first PGA TOUR card via his fourth-place finish ($247,008) on the Web.com Tour money list. Named April's Player of the Month, thanks to his victory at the Louisiana Open after surviving playoff with Mike Heinen. Forced a playoff after coming from four shots off the pace on the final day, including making birdie on four of the final seven holes. Recorded a tournament-record, 24-under 264, the most strokes under par by a winner on the Web.com Tour on way to his first career Tour win. Defeated Heinen on the second hole with a par after both players made double bogey on the first extra hole. It marked his first career title. Finished season with T2s at the Hibernia Southern Open and the TOUR Championship.

2001: Finished 15th on the 2001 Canadian Tour order of merit a year removed from winning the same title, with $93,617 in earnings. Led that Tour in stroke average for a second consecutive year (69.56).

2000: Won the Canadian Tour's McDonald's PEI Challenge and the Bayer Championship in back-to-back events. Led Canadian Tour in stroke average (69.14).

1997: Won a tournament for a third consecutive year, taking the South Australian Open.

1996: Won the Tahiti Open and the Queensland Open in a multi-victory campaign.

1995: Winner of the Fiji Open.
