Everyday Stewardship: The Heart of Stewardship

What else is there to give when one has already given away one's body and one's life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all one had has been given to another? This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his Passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship.

Then, you must ask yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

Question of the Week

First Reading

Moses reminds the Israelites of how God's miraculous gifts of manna and water helped them through their trials and tribulations. How would you explain to a friend how the Eucharist sustains you through difficult times?

Second Reading

Paul spoke of how the believers in Corinth celebrating the Eucharist were engaged in an act of "participation" in the Body and Blood of Christ. How do you imagine the Corinthians reacting to this description?

Gospel Reading

We hear in today's Gospel the closing remarks from Jesus' Bread of Life discourse. As a Christian who believes in the Eucharist, how would you answer the Jews' original question: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, June 17th – Praise & Worship
VIA Instagram Live @ 6PM

WE ARE BACK BABY!! Join Francis and I on Wednesday nights at 6pm for some virtual Praise and Worship. We will be singing songs you might have heard on the radio along with giving a short little reflection on the readings or things going on in the world. It's a great way to give praise to God during these unprecedented times. The Instagram Account we live stream from is @matt_knightt. Hope to see you on!

Confirmation UPDATE

Due to the complexity of regulations and not knowing when we will be able to be at full capacity or have any sense of normalcy Fr. Tom and I agree that Confirmation should be moved to SATURDAY NIGHT SEPTEMBER 12th AT 5PM MASS. We both want to give everyone an adequate amount of time to prepare and make arrangements. There are still two lessons to be made up that we will make up in the following months. Those dates will come later however we wanted to let everyone know so they can start making plans. Fr. Tom and myself are super excited to be able to now have a firm date on when your child will receive the graces from the sacrament.

The Prayer to the Sacred Heart

Oh Lord Jesus Christ, to Your most Sacred Heart I confide my intention
Only look upon me, then do what Your love inspires.
Let Your Sacred Heart
decide.
I count on You. I trust in
You. I throw myself on Your mercy. Lord Jesus,
You will not fail me.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I believe in Your love for me.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, Your kingdom come.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I have asked You for many favors, but I earnestly implore this one.

Take it, place it in Your open Heart.

When the Eternal Father looks upon it, He will see it covered with Your Precious Blood.

It will be no longer my prayer, but Yours,

Jesus. Sacred Heart of Jesus,

I place all my trust in You. Let me not be disappointed. Amen.

Amen.
