Model Horse
RE·VIEW

Vol. 9 No. 2 ~ Summer 2024

There's no telling where a vintage custom model horse may be biding its time! This portrait model of former world champion pacer Falcon Almahurst (and driver-trainer Bill Haughton), created by the late Charlie Over in 1985 from a Breyer Pacer, was displayed for decades in a window of the office of Hill Farm, longtime home of the real Falcon Almahurst in Hilliard, Ohio. Over was active in the model horse hobby, and together with his wife Karen hosted the 12th Annual Model Horse Congress live show in Marney Walerius' stead in 1984. He passed away in 1989. We're thrilled to have Falcon Almahurst and Haughton join another Over portrait duo, former world champion trotter Op Art and driver Bruce Riegle, in the VCMEC Museum!

A Word to the Fore: Aspiration and Desperation

By next issue, we'll know. Right now we don't--but we're doing all we can to help it happen. Because we've found the ideal venue for the VCMEC Museum, and are trying to raise funds to buy it!

It's a nearly 5,500-square-foot former church in Ironwood, Mich., with a 21-car parking lot. It was built in 1893 as the Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church. It still has its exquisite copper ceiling and walnut woodwork, and has also been brought up to date as office space, with updated electric, recent roof, new windows, and a security system. It's also ADA accessible, including an exterior ramp and restroom widened to accommodate a wheelchair.

It's zoned Neighborhood Commercial, which requires the inclusion of a business for the community. So Corky and I would run an auction, appraisal, and consignment sale business...and have plenty of room left for a museum devoted to the model horse hobby and its pioneers.

We've been pre-approved for a loan for the property, and need to put 20 percent down. We've been selling parts of our collections to raise more funds, but still have a long row to hoe. So we've started a GoFundMe at <https://www.gofundme.com/f/please-help-our-dream-of-an-auction-biz-and-museum>, which to date has raised over $5,000. Thank you so much to Walter Amos, Lois Bennington, Rachel Bergman, Kate Cabot, Shay Canfield, Katherine Carter, Mary Chrusciel, Dana Crigger, Tessa Dalton, Laura Doll, Alethea Drexler, Pauline Entin, Teresa Fedak, Rochelle Garwood, Karen Gerhardt, Elizabeth Jill Griffin, Sarah Heilman, Nancy Kelly, Tracy Kim, Pat Malone, Sue Mastrandrea, Lori Newby, Paula O'Keefe, Marie Phillips, Anita Poole, Shannon Rodgers, Sue Rowe, Isoline Sanderson, Seiko Sato, Sue Stahl, Eleda Towle, Jane Varin, Meg Walker, Kathy Wells, and Lori Williams for your donations! Several folks have also bought vintage customs we've been auctioning on the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center page on Facebook; you'll see them in the "Fair Market Value" section this issue and next. We appreciate your help so much--thank you!!

At this writing, we're almost two-thirds of the way. The stress is gruelling; we've been trying so hard for over a month to raise the funds before someone else does. Will we make it? Stay tuned!

In the meantime, check out this issue's cavalcade of newly crowned VCMEC Online World Champions! Competing against other vintage customs from around the world (Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, and the USA), they've earned these honors through a year and a half of competition under six different judges in the VCMEC 2022-23 Online World Championships show series. It's an event so epic, we had to split this issue into two halves to be able to upload all the results!

We'll be ordering its beautiful trophies and rosettes from Hodges Badge Company in late July/early August. If you have a 2022-23 World Champion or Reserve World Champion, first of all, mondo congrats! And second of all, be thinking about if you'd like to order a commemorative ribbon for that horse. We'll be contacting entrants later this month to find out.

The first four editions of this epic series have been so much fun, we're happy to announce the VCMEC 2024-25 Online World Championships are a go! The gates open Aug. 1, with the first show in the six-leg series to start Sept. 1 (deadline Aug. 30). Get your show info packet PDF on our website or on the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center's Facebook page starting July 15!

Now, here come the world's greatest vintage customs and their hard-earned VCMEC titles for 2022-23. Congratulations to all and their creators, owners, and photographers, and thank you to all of the entrants and judges for making this epic series possible!
