BIRDATHON '87

On May 2 our chapter again participated in the "Birdathon", Natl. Audubon's annual fund raising event. Chapter members solicited money pledges from other members, friends and family for each bird species they saw that day. Thanks to the many participants we had a successful day raising over $2000. Not all the money is in yet. For those of you who missed your chance to contribute, it is not too late. Birdathon chair, Jean Coyle, is still accepting donations through June 15. She can be reached at 592-2225 or mail your contribution to: Jean Coyle, 1987 Birdathon Chair, 11124 Montana #215, El Paso, TX 79936.

Highlights of this year's event:
highest number of species - John Sproul (100) highest number of sponsors - Tom Baker (25)
most money raised - Jane Fowler

Grand prize drawing for Porcelain Penguin with Chick - Paul D. McCoy

Second prize drawing for original painting of a Vermilion Flycatcher - Liz Guinn (painted and donated by MARCELLA MURRAY)

For most unusual bird, a bottle of Champaigne award to John Sproul for a Willow Flycatcher (donor BART RUMAKER)

For youngest birding participant, Bushnell binoculars were awarded Gabriel Bickle (binoculars donated by PETE DIX and TOM HUSSMANN).

AUDUBON TO CLOSE REGIONAL OFFICES
A.C.T. PLANS EMERGENCY MEETING

At its May meeting, the board of directors of the National Audubon Society made a decision with major implications for all Audubon Chapters. Citing budget constraints, the board opted to close most Audubon regional offices, including our Southwest Regional Office, as of July 1. After that date, there will be only 3 regional offices: Western, Eastern and Alaska. In 4 states -- Texas, Florida, Minnesota and Washington -- Audubon does plan to maintain state offices. Staffing and function of the Texas office are not yet clear.

How will the board's decision affect the existing Audubon network in our region? How can we

THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE

By the time you read this, the 70th Texas Legislature will have ended its regular session. Here's where selected bills stood a week before the June 1 adjournment date:

Franklin Mountains (H.B. 1839). On May 4, the House passed H.B. 1839, the bill to remove land from Franklin Mts. State Park, with an amendment reducing the area to be removed from 3,275 acres (~5 square miles) to 1,290 acres (~2 square miles). On May 6, the bill was referred to the Senate Natural Resources Committee, chaired by Tati Santiesteban of El Paso. There it stayed, while the City of El Paso's Public Service Board, the Franklin Mts. Wilderness Coalition and Sen. Santiesteban's Natural Resources Advisory Group tried to negotiate a settlement on the issue. The Senator had refused to release the bill unless and until an agreement acceptable to the Coalition and his Advisory Group was reached. The boundary amendment passed by the House reflected one point agreed to early on. Other issues were harder to resolve, though, and only as we went to press did an agreement appear near. Whether the bill ultimately passes or not, thanks are due Sen. Santiesteban (Texas Senate, P.O. Box 12068, Austin 78711) for his role in the process. He withstood a lot of pressure in order to ensure the best possible outcome for the Park.

Groundwater. The Legislature's performance in this area has been mixed. On the positive side, S.B. 779, Sen. Santiesteban's bill to establish a state program for regulation of underground storage tanks, passed both the Senate and House in May. The Senate now needs to concur with a House-passed amendment, after which the bill goes to the governor for his signature. S.B. 1033 also appears headed towards enactment, but in a very different form from when it was introduced. Originally intended to establish a state policy of nondegradation of groundwater quality and set enforcement standards for organic contaminants in groundwater, it now simply calls for further study on the groundwater-quality issue and establishes certain public information requirements. Finally, H.B. 1451/S.B. 967, the bill to set minimum standards for groundwater districts, has been weakened but is still alive. At press time, it had passed the Senate and was awaiting full House action.

Agency Funding. The impasse between the Legislature and Gov. Clements continues, and a special session this summer to resolve the budget issue appears likely. Though the House ($39.4 billion) and Senate ($39.9 billion) appropriations bills aren't too far apart overall, only the Senate version avoids funding cuts for natural-resource and environmental agencies. The governor, of course, contends both versions are too high. Keep urging your senator and representative to work for full and adequate funding for state environmental agencies.

Texas Rivers (C.S.H.B. 1250/C.S.S.B. 702). The bill to create a Texas Rivers Conservation System was reported favorably by the Senate Natural Resources Committee May 13 but still awaits full Senate action. Even if it clears the Senate, House passage this late in the session is unlikely.

Container Deposit (H.B. 210). This bill died in the House Environmental Affairs Committee. Could the fact that the committee chairman is a beer distributor have had anything to do with its demise?

Golden Eagles (H.B. 2050/S.B. 997). The bill to clarify in the Parks and Wildlife Code that Golden Eagles may not be hunted or trapped without a permit passed the House, was reported favorably by the Senate Natural Resources Committee and is expected to pass the Senate. /John Sproul/best maintain Audubon's current momentum in Texas? The Audubon Council of Texas will hold an emergency meeting in Austin June 6 to discuss the National Audubon board's action and develop strategies for the future of Audubon in Texas. EP/TPAS members are invited to attend. For meeting details, contact John Sproul (545-5157).

the present, with a flock of 17 birds ranging through the Chiricahuas and with biologists watching hopefully for signs of breeding. Thanks, Jim, for an outstanding talk.

The Thick-billed Parrot breeds in mature highland pine forests in the mountains of Chihuahua and Durango and was formerly a conspicuous if irregular visitor to s.e. Arizona. There are no nesting records from the U.S., and the last sightings in Arizona date from the mid-1930s. The Chiricahuas appear to contain a large expanse of suitable habitat, though. With prospects for the species bleak in Mexico due to continued forest clearing and continued illegal capture of Thick-billeds for the pet trade, the Chiricahuas may hold the key to future survival of this species in the wild.

The Thick-billed Parrot project is coordinated by the Arizona Game and Fish Dept. (AGFD), with the U.S. Forest Service and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service also cooperating. The project leader is another old friend of our chapter, Dr. Noel Snyder, previously with the California Condor Recovery Program and also a man with extensive research experience with the endangered Puerto Rican Parrot. The Thick-billed Parrot Project is run on a very limited budget, and any and all contributions are greatly appreciated. You can send donations to: Nongame Donations Fund/Thick-billed Parrot Project, AGFD, Attn: Terry Johnson, 2222 W. Greenway Rd., Phoenix, AZ 85023-4399. Please make sure your check is designated to the Thick-billed Parrot Project. /John Sproul/

THICK-BILLED PARROT PROJECT

The mystery guest at our May general meeting? None other than Jim Koschmann, local veterinarian and long-time friend of our chapter. Those not attending missed an excellent presentation. Dr. Koschmann is actively involved in a project to reintroduce the endangered Thick-billed Parrot to the Chiricahua Mts. of s.e. Arizona. He gave us a lively description of that project -- from the germination of the idea, through the first releases last fall, to

EDUCATION NOTES

PROJECT WILD: Thirty-two participants had a wild time April 25 at the Project WILD Teacher-In-Service Workshop organized by EP/TPAS Conservation Chair Gloria Woelfel. Project WILD (Wildlife in Learning Design) is an environmental education program that introduces students, through games and other activities, to basic ecological principles and gets them thinking about the importance of wildlife in our world. The workshop participants now have the materials and skills to use Project WILD in their classrooms. Thanks go to Gloria for organizing the workshop, to Ilo Hiller of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. for traveling from Austin to serve as workshop leader, and to Ginny and Tom Baker, Karen Kaplan and Sandy Maldonado for their help in making the day a success.

AUDUBON ADVENTURES: Enrollment of classes for the 1987-88 school year is going well. So is the support of our members and friends for this youth education program of the National Audubon Society. Hearty thanks are due Marianne Berry, Joyce Davis, Robert Doss, Jane Fowler and Anne Hussmann for sponsoring 1987-88 Audubon Adventures classrooms. Are you interested in sponsoring a class? Contact our Audubon Adventures coordinator, Peggy Riede (833-4881).

SCHOLARSHIP: One of our original scholarship winners has unfortunately had to decline her grant. That scholarship now goes to Nan Johnson, a 1985 UTEP Biological Sciences graduate and aspiring environmental educator who will use the award to take part in an Audubon Wilderness Research Backpack Trip in Wyoming. Congratulations, Nan!

SLIDE SHOW: Our "Birds of El Paso" slide show has gotten lots of exposure lately, with 4 recent presentations. Thanks go to Tom Baker, Sarah Jane Dodds, Jane Fowler and Neil Keith for giving these programs. To schedule a showing of the program, contact Ginny Baker (877-3365) or Jane Fowler (772-0296).

RIO BOSQUE PARK: The Education committee has begun work on an Audubon management plan for Rio Bosque Park, the undeveloped 286-acre city park in El Paso's lower valley. A draft outline is now circulating for review and comment. To obtain a copy, contact John Sproul (545-5157).

DONATIONS

We gratefully acknowledge a donation to the chapter from Mr. F. M. White in memory of Maj. Gen. Frederic Hughes.

TOS MEETING

Our chapter was host to 75 members of the Texas Ornithological Society which held its Spring meeting in El Paso May 14-16.

We organized and led field trips for the visitors to some of the area's birding hot spots: Guadalupe Mts. Natl Park, Cloudcroft, Aguirre Springs, Franklin Mts., Hueco Tanks, El Paso's upper and lower valleys and the Northeast Oxidation Ponds. A special trip on flora of the Franklins was led by Clark Champie.

TOS birders collectively saw 162 species, and many added a number of "lifers" to their lists. Marlene Boulerice saw 13 new birds in Cloudcroft and 7 more in the lower valley.

The speaker for the banquet on Sat. evening was Phyllis R. Dague with Peregrine Fund, Inc., Laboratory of Ornithology, Cornell Univ. Steve Runnels, outgoing President of TOS, expressed his thanks to EP/TPAS chapter members for their assistance in making the meeting such a success. I also wish to express my gratitude to the local crew (Nancy Wilson, Anne Hussmann, Bettie Roberts, Robert Doss, Tom Baker, John Sproul, Jeff Donaldson, Joyce Davis, Jo Nagel, Jane Fowler, Bart Rumaker, Gloria Woelfel, Neil Keith, Clark Champie, Ray Waite, and Larry Jordan) for their efforts and time spent in showing the folks from other parts of Texas our area's bird life.

/Bob Johnson/

[Ed. note: Bob was chapter coordinator for local TOS activities--arranging for lodging and banquet accommodations, organizing field trips and evening programs, etc. Thanks, Bob, for your enthusiasm, resourcefulness and a job well done.]

NEW MEMBERS

We wish to welcome these new members into our local chapter and NAS: E. W. Anderson, Jr., Ms. K. J. Fuller, Mrs. Janet E. Hoffman, and Mr. Chad Puerling.
