Letter to Experienced Game Show Riders

Have you been to a fair?

We have all been to fairs, but for most of us, it wasn't with our horses. It is rare to find a fair that offers an "open game show". If they have games at all, it is usually limited to youth programs (et. 4-H, FFA)

Fairs offer lots of excitement and fun shared with family and friends. Memories like these can be shared with your horse family and the area's family of horses at the Stanley Rodeo Horse Games. Here the horse games and atmosphere offer horse fun that can't be matched at regular speed shows or fun shows. Each event is carefully chosen to double your event riding time (time past the timeline) compared to regular game shows. An example of this is our popular "Equine Extreme Event" where after you enter the arena you circle 6 barrels, cross a bridge, cross logs, jump a jump and navigate a keyway.

Come join in the fun of the horse community at this year's Stanley Rodeo Horse Games, the local fair food and activities, and stay for the evening rodeo entertainment.

"Good Times, Horse Memories are made here!"

Happy Trails,

RODEO HORSE GAMES
Saturday, June 16th, 2018 ° 8:00 a.m. - 3:30

RODEO GAME RULES

- A Horse may be used only once in any event.
- No running through the gate at the start or finish of an event.
- Lead line riders will receive one participation ribbon for the day.
- No alcoholic beverages allowed in staging area or stands.
- Other than "lead line" there can be NO physical presence or help past the time line.
- The next rider must be in the "in chute" when his/her name is called or the next rider will be called... ("in the hole" name will be called prior).
- At the judges' discretion, a rider may be disqualified for horse abuse, unsportsmanlike conduct (including foul language), lack of control or unsafe situation such as an unruly horse.
- A rider may request that a jump be laid on the ground with 5 seconds added to their time.
- No whipping or spurring in front of the cinch.
- A Western Hat or helmet must be worn (we strongly recommend all riders wear helmets).
- Button down western shirts (Long or short sleeves), jeans/riding pants or riding skirt, and western riding boots with at least a ½ inch heel must be worn. Vest or ties are welcome.
- One (1) second penalty for losing hat if it falls to the ground within the gates.
- No re-rides for broken equipment or fallen horses. No re-ride due to equipment failure if the time clock has started.
- Entry period ends one event prior.
- High point ties will be broken by the barrel event.
- In the event of ties for the class, the tie is to be run off between the riders involved – the winner of the tie must have ran-off within two (2) seconds of his/her original time or the run-off must be held again. OPTIONAL: if both riders agree, the tie will be broken by the flip of a coin.
- Any breaking of the pattern means disqualification. Circling of the props more than once, backing, changing of direction, etc. is not considered breaking of pattern as the time will take care of that.
- No running your horse in the staging area, there is a 'sand warm up area in the parking lot.
- Any act of discourtesy or disobedience towards any Rodeo Game Official or Worker, in or out of the arena, will result in disqualification for the duration of the Rodeo Game Show.
- Any grievance must be submitted in writing to the judge and may not be discussed with the volunteers/workers in the announcer's stand.

- If the timer fails, the rider has an option of two re-rides. If more obstacles are knocked over on the first re-ride than the initial ride then a second re-ride can be taken with the later time used.
