

FRENCH TEACHER POSITION

The Alliance Française de Las Vegas (AFLV) is a Nevada private non-profit cultural and educational organization. Our mission is to enhance the knowledge and appreciation of French and Francophone culture, to increase the knowledge of the French language, and to encourage interaction among French, Francophone, and American people through programs in education and the arts. Our independent contracting Teachers are a key component of the educational program, and we work hard to create a stimulating and supportive teaching environment to promote long-term associations and continuous development.

Job Description

- Teaching A1-C2 level French courses for children, teenagers and adults
- Develop programs and course materials
- Evaluate student mastery of skills and competencies described by the CEFRL.
- Provide an excellent teaching experience as well as participate in student advisement and cultural activities
- Participate in trainings and staff meetings
- Keeping student records up to date
- Integrating learning technology into teaching programs
- Maintaining center resource materials
- Group and private courses taught at multiple locations in Las Vegas area
- Day, evening and weekend courses may be available
- In-person and online lessons

Required Qualifications:

- Eligible to work in the U.S.
- Native French speaker or non-native with C2 level
- Teaching experience
- Available on weekends and/or weekdays afternoons
- English proficiency B2 minimum
- Bachelor's degree or the equivalent minimum. A degree in French Language or Literature, Linguistics, Education or Second Language Acquisition desirable.
- COVID-19 vaccine proof.
- Master's degree a plus.
- DELF-DALF and/or TCF examiner certification a plus.
- Certifications and other requirements to teach children a plus.

Application:

- CV or Resume
- Cover letter in French
- Documents demonstrating eligibility to work in the U.S.
- References or Recommendation letters

Please submit documents to director@aflasvegas.org by September 7, 2021