A Note from Rick: Markets on Tuesday were a little softer across the board. This doesn't come as a big surprise as we've seen steady increases in most all categories over the last few weeks. The one market that took the biggest hit was the calf market. This is a direct result of the grain prices spiking and the whole feed situation being a big question, especially in certain areas. This has also affected the feeder cattle prices recently. We are definitely in a very risky situation when it comes to feed and feed prices for the 2019 crop year and only time will tell just how this will all shake out. I look for this instability to continue throughout the summer. We had a great weekend of horse sales at TLA. Our Summer Draft Sale on Friday was a good one. We had a lot of good consignments that sold very well and a good crowd that made that happen. The June Driving Horse Auction on Saturday was a big one. We had a big run of horses and overall a good sale when all was said and done. Topping the sale was a 2 year old that sold for $28,000. We hope to see you over the 4th of July weekend for the Horse Pull and our Firecracker Frenzy. See you at TLA!
