

2022 New Holland Spring Bucket List

PRESENTED BY LICKITY SPLIT

- Locate a sign that states the date New Holland was founded.
- Pay your respects to local Veterans at the New Holland War Memorial located at the New Holland Park with a moment of silence.
- Take a beautiful photo of the trees blooming at Groff-Miller Park.
- Attend any of the livestock sales at the New Holland Sales Barn.
- Take a hike at the Welsh Mountain Preserve.
- Find the monument dedicated to New Holland's founder. Hint: it's in a cemetery.
- Play a round of golf at New Holland's Pitch & Put.
- See the taxidermy mounts at Tannery Antique.
- Walk through Garden Spot Village's Memorial Garden when it's in full bloom.
- Find the large Whirly Gig in the Sycamore Springs neighborhood.
- Spot a New Holland round baler or tractor.
- Time flies when you're having fun! Snap a fun photo at the Towne Center Green's clock.
- There is a WWII cannon in the New Holland Park, who is the water fountain in front of it dedicated to?
- Reading is knowledge! Check out the ELANCO Library.
- New Holland has a historical society. How many grandfather clocks are in the museum? Museum hours are Thursdays and Saturdays from 10am-2pm.
- Take a picture of one of the many date/cornerstones located throughout town. Hint: there is one located in the cemetery stone wall on N Railroad Ave.
- Take a stroll on Garden Spot High School's new track during public hours.
- Beautiful our town by picking up trash and disposing of it.
- Walk through the Peaceful Healing Journey on N Shirk Road and take a picture of your favorite stop on the path.
- Take a selfie with Joe Jailer or the early bicycle at Lickity Split Restaurant!
