Reflecting on the Purpose of Judgement ----- -----With Pastor Eric

<sup>1</sup>"Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For with the judgment you make you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get. <sup>3</sup>Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? <sup>4</sup>Or how can you say to your neighbor, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' while the log is in your own eye? <sup>5</sup>You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye.

Matthew 7:1-5

When I was a child, I used to play these games at school, church, and at home. Maybe they are familiar to you as well.

- This or That: Take turns presenting two options and have players guess which you'd prefer or identify with.
- 20 Questions: Guess what object, person, place, thing, or animal your opponent is thinking of by asking only yes or no questions.
- Two Truths and Lie: Can you spot the lie when players share two facts about their lives and a lie?

Games like these are designed to help us learn to make judgements and evaluate choices – and to learn about other people at the same time. They help us to listen, evaluate and make decisions (necessary skills and limited especially when judging).

I have thought quite a bit about judging and what it means as a follower of Jesus. I find myself torn over the response "Don't be judgy!" after I make an observation or statement of personal opinion. Is it true that Jesus commands me not to judge "others"? Well, yes and no. Jesus commands us not to judge without considering how we may be judged. Human nature encourages us to pay far more attention to the shortcomings of others than to our own faults. We tend to evaluate others based on a lofty standard of righteousness that somehow is not applicable to our own performance. Jesus instructs us to stop “criticizing” and take to heart how we wish to be treated and “evaluated.” A critical judgement tends to incur a harsh response.

However, I do believe that we need to make judgements from time to time about how we operate in the world. We must evaluate our options and the choices which we make in life. The admonition not to judge is often taken incorrectly to imply that believers are not to make moral judgments about anyone or anything. That this is not what was intended is indicated in Matthew 7:15–20, which warn of false prophets who can be known by the fruit they bear. Jesus does not ask us to lay aside our critical faculties but rather to resist the urge to speak harshly of others. I must make decisions about many things which help guide my actions, and I must be open to learn from them and work to become more conscious of my biases. And yes, I may be “judgy” at times as I navigate a new day with its cultural shifts and changing social norms. But I pray that Jesus continues to forgive me as I make my way and that I will become more gracious and forgiving of others and them of me.

I am reminded that we seem to be more intolerant and less patient with those around us at present. We listen less and are less curious. I understand why “judging” is such a heavy and negatively perceived activity – so legalistic and now, more political! I hope that we do not lose the good purpose in making sound and thoughtful judgements along with the gift of learning and growing with and through them.

Let us pray. Gracious Lord, who commands us not to judge, so that we may not be judged, open our minds and hearts to consider how we judge situations and interactions, so that we may receive grace and grow into a greater awareness of ourselves, our need to learn, and listen. May we give and forgive and seek understanding along the way. Amen.

GET INVOLVED

Men's Bible Study

Wednesdays at 7:00 a.m. in the council room.

ZOOM Bible Study

Tuesdays from 7:30pm – 8:30pm during Lent on Zoom - One of the greatest frustrations of the Christian life is having to wait for God to act. We wait, sometimes for years, for our prayers to be answered, for our deepest longings to be fulfilled. Some devoted Christians get stuck in dead-end jobs even though they feel certain they could serve God in greater ways if only He would open the opportunity. Why doesn't He? Some wait for a godly spouse, some couples wait for the gift of children, and some, who have dedicated their lives to serving the Lord, wait in disappointed bafflement as their work seems to yield no fruit. Why?

As Christians, we yearn to serve the Lord, to step forward and obey Him like the great heroes of the Bible, but we are confused, waiting for clear orders, kept at a distance by the invisible barriers of God's silence, His inaction, or His unhurried pace. In "When God Takes Too Long", Joseph Bentz examines the mysteries of God's timing and shows Christians how to thrive in the midst of one of life's greatest frustrations--waiting. He offers those who have been discouraged by a life of waiting a chance to alter not only their perspective on waiting, but also their actions in response to it, transforming this frustration into a positive force that will enrich and change their lives.

"When God Takes Too Long" addresses:

- How not to wish (or wait) our lives away
- How to better understand the nature of time
- How to master the discipline of waiting
- How to cast off the boundaries of time to view our lives from an eternal perspective

USHER UPDATE!

The last few months Mark and Brad (mostly, but not exclusively) have welcomed everyone with smiling faces and a warm handshake if so inclined. Besides the greeters, the ushers welcome all the people coming in. So, let's continue to welcome people coming into the church.

We are volunteering couples/families by month. Two families will be listed each month and they can work out which Sundays work best for them within the month. If someone was omitted and would like to be included, please let the office know. There will be conflicts, so please find a substitute and all will work out. Mark and Brad will continue to fill in as needed and be guides. There is an usher "checklist" on the table in fellowship hall to review for duties included.
