

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

Barb Vallone is the chair of the charity quilt donations, responsible for their collection and distribution. At the June meeting there were so many donated quilts that they overflowed the two large laundry baskets she transports them in. There also was a large shopping bag filled with neonatal blankets.

Nancy Larsen, Regina Scott Brooks, TC Wiley and Barb will distribute quilts this year.

Your generosity is overwhelming and so appreciated. Those of you who have donated quilts show you care and are an inspiration to others.

Elsewhere in the newsletter is listed the size requirements and charitable outlets. It is suggested that each member make and donate a quilt for one of these worthy causes.

Until next month.... Do your little bit of good where you are; it's those little bits of good put together that overwhelm the world. Desmond Tutu

You will help Mary obtain her show judge credentials and the guild's finances by taking part in this fun evening. FYI: please bring items for sale that you no longer want but may be useful to someone else...no junk. For the Zoom participants, the quilt judging will begin at 7:00 pm.

workshops

Escher – Kaffe August 29

This pattern is the third in a series of MC Escher inspired quilts. Bold prints work well in the construction of this quilt. The cubes along with the original Escher Y's make for a fabulously dimensional quilt. No Y seams used in construction makes this project simpler than the complex design appears. The pattern will be included in the price of this workshop.

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection from 9-4

A minimum of 10 registrations are required to hold this workshop

Members: $45/Nonmembers $50

www.quilt-agious.com

Homestead Star September 26

This class starts with the how-to of Fabric Selection, continuing on with precision machine piecing techniques that result in cutaways that can cleverly be used to make a second quilt out of the leftovers. The class continues with information on how to decide what quilting pattern goes where, as well as how to accomplish those quilting techniques with your home sewing machine.

In Case You Missed It

I had a computer glitch during the June guild meeting. Unknown to us there was no wi-fi in the classrooms for our Schoolhouse Workshops. My apologies to those of you who were signed on to Zoom and had to miss a great evening. I'm happy to say that Debbie Blaustein will offer a class on her jelly roll rugs. Watch for further information.

Doors will open at 6 p.m. for the July meeting. Please bring your slightly used and no longer needed quilting items and place them on the tables for sale. Kirsten will be there to assist you.

We are still in need of a VP of Planning. Nancy Fenske needs a co-chair for Hospitality to finish out the year. There are only five meetings remaining and your help is especially needed.

Keep informed by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.

Lighthouse Quilters Guild Guild Meeting June 27, 2022 In-Person and Zoom Virtual Meeting

Forty people attended the June "Schoolhouse Workshops" meeting. Some problems with lack of wi-fi prevented zoom attendees from participating in all of the workshops.

At the meeting, Ginger Wanserski showed attendees how to create a variety of beautiful, coiled bowls in different sizes, using cotton, yarn, and other materials and adding decorative touches. Debbie Blaustein demonstrated how to make soft, unusual rugs using jelly rolls. Vicki Madsen provided sample of easily made and striking striped quilts using a Missouri Star pattern. Sue Causey offered several useful sewing tips and demonstrated three practical binding techniques. Attendees greatly appreciated the demonstrations.

There were no business meeting items discussed at the meeting. The next Guild meeting will be held on July 25th. At the meeting Mary Wolter will be judging 40 quilts provided by Guild members. There will also be a rummage sale of items donated by the Guild. Donations can be brought to the meeting by 6 pm, when the doors will be unlocked.

Read a Q&A with Ken Burns about this year's featured exhibit, Uncovered: The Ken Burns Collection

Did you know documentary filmmaker Ken Burns collects historic American quilts? On loan from his private collection, these handmade artifacts not only tell stories from our history, but share the spirit of people who lived it.

Explore Uncovered: The Ken Burns Collection at the 2022 Great Wisconsin Quilt Show! In anticipation of this special exhibit, PBS Wisconsin spoke with Ken Burns about his love of quilts and what he hopes viewers will take away from seeing his collection. Enjoy this lovely Q&A about quilts and the joy they bring us.
