

Betty B. Allshouse, age 77, of Hot Springs, Arkansas formerly of Lanoka Harbor, New Jersey went to be with her Lord on June 7, 2017.

She was born on August 30, 1939 to Garfield and Jessie Mae Burton of Marianna, Arkansas. She graduated from T.A. Futrell High School in Marianna and the Memphis School of Commerce. Betty was an executive secretary for the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U.S. Patent Office in Washington D. C. She completed her career as an executive secretary for the New Jersey State Bar Association in Trenton, New Jersey. She continued secretarial work while raising her family at the Forked River Presbyterian Church in Forked River, New Jersey. She was an active and integral member of First Presbyterian Church, Hot Springs where she volunteered for the Bargain Box Ministry and served for many years as a Deacon. She was a member of Morning Star Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star in Hamilton Square, New Jersey.

She is survived by her beloved and devoted husband of 58 years, Joseph Allshouse. She is also survived by daughter, Robin Van Nortwick (John) of Olive Branch, Mississippi and daughter Jodi Biglan (Tom) of Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey. Betty was devoted to her four grandchildren Nathan Van Nortwick, Morgan Van Nortwick, Casey Biglan and TJ Biglan. She leaves behind her brother Loyd Burton of Little Rock, Arkansas, sister Erma Jean Hendrix (Dude) of Marianna, Arkansas and brother Bill Burton (Bernice) of Clarksville, Tennessee. She is preceded in death by her sister Wilma Dean Mathews. Betty adored her many nieces and nephews and cousin/best friend Susie Mitchel of Hot Springs and was happiest when she could spend time with her many friends and family. She loved being able to serve her church and was a shining example of love to everyone she met. Betty always had a smile and a compliment to give, she made everyone feel important and special.
