Hong (Carol) Yin believes the infinite beauty of art is achieved through the artist's creative imagination. Her artworks have been displayed in museums and galleries both in USA and China. Many of her artworks received awards. Born in an artists' family that is of Tibetan descent, Hong Yin started painting and drawing when she was little. While she is interested in various subject matter of painting, her favorite is about Tibetan people and land. She traveled to the Tibetan area for many times and find endless inspirations for art creation. At the presentation, Hong Yin will share her art background and her experiences in learning art.

Annual Auction May 1st: items on display now!

ZAAP needs your help to make our annual auction a success.

PLEASE promote this event to your friends and encourage them to bid early and bid often. They don't want to miss a chance at getting a treasure from a ZAAP artist or supporter!

PLEASE VOLUNTEER

We will need workers for the evening of the auction to help with many tasks. A list of jobs will be discussed at the next membership meeting on May 23rd. Snacks and drinks will also be needed for our guests on the evening of the auction.

Jeff Koehler is returning to be the auctioneer for this important annual event at the gallery.

This year's auction will feature two tables of silent auction items and a live auction beginning at 8:45 pm. All items will be available in April for pre-auction bidding. Silent auction tables close at 8:15 and 8:30 on the evening of the auction.

From the desk of the director: John Taylor-Lehman

I must start this newsletter with many Thank Yous. There is an enormous amount of gratitude that must be expressed for the contributions to ZAAP last month.

THANK YOU, Paul Emory, artist and landlord. He did a spectacular job of quickly and expertly painting the gallery. We suggested it was time to spring clean and he jumped in with an offer to repair and paint the gallery walls. He is in the process of fixing the cracks in the floor too! Thank him for beautifying the gallery next time you see him.

THANK YOU to the workers who washed windows, scrubbed the gallery floors, cabinets, bathroom, painted furniture, and walls. The members who aided in the spring cleaning were: Tori Alexander, Christy Swope, Cathy White, Mike Smith, Irene Barron, John Taylor-Lehman, Janice Helmbrecht, and Erin France.

THANK YOU to all the members who donated art work and other items for our auction. The response has been fantastic so we have a beautiful array of items for May 1st.

THANK YOU to all the members who have paid their dues.

THANK YOU to all the members who have consistently fulfilled their obligation to sit at the gallery.

We will have a group outing on April 25th at Mission Oaks Gardens. <http://www.missionoaksgardens.org/> Artists are encouraged to bring supplies necessary to capture ideas for works of art to be displayed in September. The "Free Range" exhibition will be at the McIntire Library gallery. Feel free to bring a guest. Visit the garden anytime but join other artists for lunch at 1pm.

We are tentatively scheduling a "soft opening" for May 15th. This will give us a chance to show off art work in the gallery AFTER the auction. Erin France will host a Silpada party that evening and donate some proceeds to ZAAP.
