

MAPS ARE AVAILABLE AT EACH STUDIO AND WHIPPLE HALL

Seven artists are at Whipple showing their work. You can get free maps and brochures at this location. Nine more artists, in their studios, are within 20 minutes drive from Whipple, (see map & directions overleaf). Most studios have bathrooms. Handicapped Access Studios are marked

#1 - WHIPPLE HALL

429 MAIN STREET, NEW LONDON NH 03257

SUSAN AZODI (sazodi@colby-sawyer.edu)

I experiment with many mediums and styles as I investigate how the subjects that I have chosen are best portrayed.

CAROL BELLIVEAU (carolbelliveauart@gmail.com or www.carolbelliveau.com)

Carol's inspiration comes from healing, beauty, and natural muses. She enjoys using different mediums, playful techniques, and different genres.

SUE ANNE BOTTOMLEY (sueannebottomley@gmail.com or www.colorfuljourney.art)

Three books of local interest, written and illustrated by the artist. Small paintings on wood panels. Notecards of watercolor and pen designs, two sizes, gift packs.

LUDMILA GAYVORONSKY (Ludmila.gayvoronsky@myfairpoint.com)

My artwork encompasses genres ranging from expressionist to surreal. I'm inspired by the spiritual potentials of the human body and the world around us.

BARBARA HUNTING (bfhunting@tds.net)

Acrylic paintings that focus on evocative New England landscapes. There is something soothing about a landscape that I try to capture.

PENNY KOBURGER (pennykob@gmail.com or http://www.penelopesgallery.com)

I paint landscapes & still life in watercolor or oil paint. This allows me to contemplate a person, object, or "nature." Portraying light, color & mood fascinate & challenge me.

DAVID TIBBETTS (www.dbtwatercolors.com)

Originals, prints and commissions of favorite fishing spots, boats, family camps, outdoor scenes, abstract stone-scapes and more.

#2 HUGO ANDERSON

428-B Main Street, New London, NH 03257

A painter of minimal or abstract landscapes based more on the essence of the subject than it's form. Hugo has worked as an artist, curator, and art dealer for the past 45 years.

#3 PETER ANDERSON

428-G Main Street, New London, NH 03257

I create abstract landscape oil paintings and monotype prints. My work reflects the landscapes of the West (New Mexico, Colorado and California) as well as the fields, mountains and clouds of New England.

#4 - MARIA BLANCK

906 Main Street, New London, NH 03257

I begin with a blank piece of paper, and end with a painting that I hope conveys emotion or pleasure, thoughtfulness, or excitement. I focus on a single subject, conveying my personal vision through the use of color, value, and shadow.

EXAMPLE shown: "A NEW DAY"

#7 - VICKI V. KORON

182 Camp Sunapee Rd. New London 03257

Vicki is very fortunate to have had a formal painting education in the time-honored academy tradition. Because of this she has the tools to explore and enjoy many avenues of painting. Her approach is always varied but her style is always uniquely hers.

vvkoron@gmail.com 603-568-5308

#8 - LUCY MUELLER

10 Birch Point Road, Sunapee, NH 03872

Collaging in 2 or 3 dimensions is my passion. Years of printmaking and collecting give me a rich source of colors, textures, shapes and details. Harmony and high contrast spark my outdoor sculpture, collages, paintings and prints.

EXAMPLE SHOWN: "GATE" (detail)

Lucy Alison Mueller@gmail.com 413-695-6591

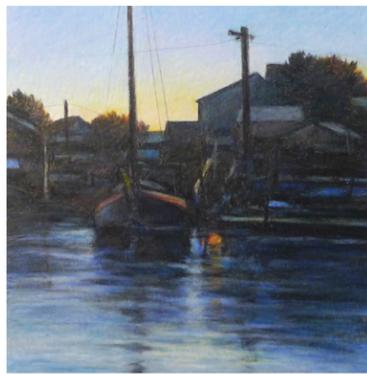

#9 - SANDY WADLINGTON

112 East Main Street Bradford, NH 03221

What interests me is color, light and composition. I find this in the landscapes of New England, the Southwest, and California. I work in oil, pastel, charcoal, colored pencil and color woodblock prints. Each technique relates and informs the other, which leads to endless inspiration.

#10 - ROGER WELLS

36 Park Avenue, North Sutton, NH 03260

I do acrylic abstractions of the natural & man-made world as well as interpretations of my mind's world. I paint metaphors, each with a poem, about my life journey in the hope of starting a conversation with you about your life.
