

Samuel K Ndinjiakat DHA, MSPAS/PA-C, MSCPM/MBA, RCIS

Dr. Ndinjiakat is the founder and CEO of Faith Gardens Medical Foundation International™, Inc., and CEO and Founder of Grace Gardens Hospital Ndop in Cameroon Africa. Sam holds an Associate degree in Applied Sciences with specialization in Cardiovascular Technology (Board Certified as a Registered Cardiovascular Invasive Specialist), an advanced Master of Science Degree in Physician Assistant Studies (Board Certified Physician Assistant), Master of Science in Clinical Practice Management/Master of Business Administration, and Doctor of Health Administration. Sam is a member of American College of Healthcare Executive (ACHE) and holds Certificate of Completion of ACHE Mentoring Program 2013. He was inducted as a member of A. T. Still University College of Graduate Health Studies Chapter of the Upsilon Phi Delta Society and enrolled in Honorary Healthcare Management Society May 2019.

Among other speaking engagements, Sam has presented on patient satisfaction at Children's Health, on strategic leadership at UT Southwestern Medical Research Conference, on Medical Mission at American Academy of Physician Assistant Annual Conference, at Harvard Cancer Institute, on Population Health, and at Cameroon Pharmacist Convention 2018, on Population Health and eliminating global health disparity

Above all, Sam is a husband to his beautiful wife, Emelda and a father to his three handsome boys (Sam Jr, Jesse, Nathan) and three beautiful daughters (Princess, Leilani, Leah). Sam loves watching Sports (Football, Basketball, Soccer), going to church. His belief in Christ Jesus has grounded him in everything he does. He is currently serving as a leader in his local church in Fate, Texas.