

Philip Murphy, D.O.

Education

(Medical)

Via College of Osteopathic Medicine
Blacksburg, VA
Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.)
Member of Sports Medicine and Infectious Disease Societies

(Residency)

Internal Medicine
Broward Health Medical Center
Ft. Lauderdale, FL
Areas of special interest: Infectious Disease, Brain
Injury/Stroke, and Quality of Care

(Undergraduate)

University of Central Florida
Orlando, FL
Bachelor of Science in Molecular Biology and Microbiology

Professional Societies

American Osteopathic Association
American Medical Association
American College of Physicians

Research and Presentations

"Possible Subclinical Leaflet Thrombosis in Bioprosthetic Aortic Valves " December, 2015
RR Makkar and Others. Broward Health Medical Center Journal Club. Audience of Attending Physicians, Resident Physicians and Medical Students.

"Intrahepatic Biliary Lithiasis " April, 2015
With Sushil Deshmukh, DO. Case Poster Presentation, Broward Health Medical Center Poster Competition.

"Checking D-dimer in Low Pretest Probability for PE Before CT angiography" December 2014
With Brian Tomich DO, Broward Health Quality Improvement Expo. Performed a 30-day retrospective chart review to analyze appropriate use of D-dimer and CT angiography of the pulmonary arteries in patients presenting with any potential suspicion of pulmonary embolism.

"Milk Intake and Risk of Fractures In Women and Men " December 2014
Broward Health Medical Center Journal Club. Audience included Attending Physicians, Fellows,
Residents, and Medical Students. BMJ 2014

ORIGINAL RESEARCH

"Evaluation of Brain Attack Management and Outcomes at Broward Health Medical Center " May 2014; With Norma Vesey MS, BSN, RN, PCCN. Performed a 6 month review of brain attacks in BHMC and followed clinical outcomes by evaluating NIHSS and Modified Rankin Scores On presentation and admission. Presented at Broward Health Medical Center Poster Competition.

Languages

English – native speaker

Spanish – Intermediate/basic conversational