Prayers of the Faithful

For all of us, the Church: for courage to take up our crosses, whatever they may be. We pray:

For leaders committed to doing their part in ensuring safety, equality and respect for all peoples. We pray:

For scientists and medical staff, and for all who are on the front lines during this pandemic. We pray:

For those living in extreme poverty, and for all who face persecution, torture or death for their beliefs. We pray:

For the protection of our fragile planet; and for all who suffer due to climate change. We pray:

For residents and staff of long-term care facilities. We pray:

For all who are sick, for those who have died and for families who are unable to have a funeral for their loved ones at this time. We pray.

ST AUGUSTINE'S THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 8TH

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION: In 2015, Pope Francis declared September 1st as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. Coinciding with a celebration instituted by the Orthodox Church, it is also a day of ecumenical prayer and unity.

To all those who have been able to 'find a way' to get their offerings into the church. Your financial support is crucial to the functioning of our churches and we are ever so grateful.

You can mail in your envelope or drop it off in the mail slot in the front door of the rectory which faces Dominion Street. If you would like to consider changing to pre-authorized payments, please call the office at 857-4223 to arrange this. Thank you for your continued generosity !!

Save the Date!

If we want our faith to remain strong and healthy, then we must invest in ourselves and take care of it!

With that in mind, the Office of Faith Development is pleased to offer a day-long formation session for catechists, taking place on September 26th at Immaculate Heart of Mary.

While of particular interest to those who are catechist coaches with their children, the day is open to all those who work in the ministry of religious instruction, i.e. marriage preparation, RCIA, baptismal preparation.

Update on Faith Development for Children

Hi Everyone, I would like to say "Welcome Back" to everyone after a very unique summer break. This has certainly been a challenging summer for all of us. And now with the schools getting ready to start up again, I am sure you are wondering what will be happening with our faith development program this coming year. Unfortunately, at this time, I do not have a concrete answer for you.

I am currently awaiting some guidance to the regulations for our sessions (social distancing, wearing of masks, use of supplies, etc.). Because this is a diocesan program, all of the English churches will be following the same protocol however that protocol has yet to be determined.

Rest assured that we will still be holding our registration in mid-September and hope to have an outline of what to expect prior to registration. Please stay tuned to the bulletin, or email for those registered from last year, for any updates.

With peace & blessings
Eileen

Exploring our Faith

Take up your cross and follow me

It seems to me that today's readings have a bit of a darker tone to them. In the first reading we hear of violence and destruction and of Jeremiah resisting his prophecy to the point of internal anguish. In the second reading, we hear of our bodies as living sacrifices. Toss in the Gospel with Jesus speaking of his upcoming suffering, death and resurrection, well it all seems like there's a bit of a dark cloud over today's readings. Fear not, there's a light at the end of this tunnel!

When hearing the first reading, then reading it's entire passage in the bible, I'm struck by the fact that no matter what we do, we cannot stop God's will. As Father Phil mentioned in his homily last week, most often it goes against societal norm to proclaim that we are followers of Christ. It's most often uncomfortable, and it's not always easy, but it is so worth it, as God blesses us and shield's us. Even trying to keep it inside as Jeremiah did, go ahead and try, but you'll also feel it like a "burning fire shut up in your bones".

In the second reading, Paul appeals to us to present our bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God. I don't think Paul wants us to actually sacrifice our bodies; I'm interpreting this reading to mean that Paul wants us to surrender ourselves completely to God. Surrender from the depths of our hearts and the deep recesses of our souls. We accept God, we proclaim Christ and we live like Christ, modelling ourselves, not on the world but on Jesus. When we offer ourselves to God we discover his path for us and we can open ourselves to being transformed by him, wholly and completely.

I find the Gospel a bit difficult to read, as in the last couple of weeks, we have heard of Simon Peter's unwavering strength and belief that Jesus is the Messiah and today we see he is fallibility by questioning Jesus' need for suffering and death. But he can't deter Jesus from his mission and Jesus tells him as much when he says, so. "Get behind me Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you are thinking not as God does, but as humans do." In wanting to protect and preserve Jesus, Simon Peter is not doing Jesus, or the world he comes to save, any kindness, if he deflects him from the path set forth by the Father.

"If anyone wants to become my follower, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me."

Take up his cross and follow him, what does this mean?!?! Am I the only one who got stuck on that line? Before writing this reflection, I read all the readings and just kept coming back to that one line, take up his cross and follow him. It's just there in my head. It took a bit of pondering and a lot of prayer and in my opinion, all three readings sum up to that one line. Jesus laid down his life on a cross and so should we, metaphorically speaking. As Saint Paul said, we should present our bodies as sacrifices, not just our bodies, minds and spirits but our entire way of life. To present our bodies as sacrifices that are holy and acceptable to God, in this case would be, in my opinion, to live our lives, not in the way of the world, but in the way of God. What do you say? Are you ready to pick up your cross and follow Jesus, wholly and completely?

A reminder to all parishioners to be aware of social distancing within the church, upon entering and leaving. We ask that you wear a mask as you enter and exit the church. To register for Mass at Our Lady of Mercy please call Odette at 531-0252 or Mike at 351-4263.

A Reminder to follow these guidelines:

In the parking lot, please observe social distancing

At the church entrance, stop and allow the volunteer to check you in.

Inside the door, stop and you will be given hand-sanitizer (your hands will be 'squirted')

Inside the church, follow the volunteer to your assigned seat

During Mass, follow all arrows and markings on the floor, so we all stay safely 6 feet apart

During Mass, enjoy the Music Ministry, Hum along, but for now, no singing.

After Mass, respect the safety of keeping the 6 feet between you and your fellow parishioners while leaving the building and when out in the parking lot.

Dispensation from Mass During this pandemic, the dispensation of Sunday Mass is given to those who can not go, those fearful to go, and those advised not to go, to church. Rather, these faithful are invited to read the Word of God and to pray in their homes and to participate in the celebrations of the Mass via TV, radio and/or the Internet. Those who are sick (fever, cough, etc), those over the age of 70 and those with medical or at-risk conditions are asked to assess their own risk and ultimately, to make their own decision. Masks are not mandatory, but we encourage everyone to wear his or her own mask. When you are sitting in your pew, safely 6 feet away from others, you can certainly remove your mask, for your comfort.

St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Depot will resume regular hours beginning September 9th and will be open Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 10:30 am until 1:15pm.
