

This document represents a contract between Nachtwaechter German Shepherds/Fido and Freud in conjunction with John Horan/DBA ACTk9 (hereafter referred to as "Trainer" and hereafter referred to as "Client")

Primary Objective: Our goal in training is partnership of the dog and Client; coached and guided by the Trainer, to develop and foster a relationship of mutual respect and understanding between Client and dog; and take steps towards the accomplishment of goals set forth during the evaluation (see below).

Prior to the purchase of a lesson package there will be an in home evaluation at the rate of $_____

"Client" is agreeing to a package of 3 in home lessons for $_____; that must be completed within 8 weeks' time.

Packages are paid in full prior to the first lesson and are non refundable as the packages are discounted from traditional hourly rate.

Payment is accepted via:

Cash

Check

Money Order

PayPal (5% fee applies)

Cancellation or insignificant funds from a personal check or cancellation of PayPal payment will result in fees and action taken to regain funds.

Services rendered for compensation include: 3 hour long lessons in Client's home or at a nearby location as agreed upon per Client and Trainer.

Trainer and Client will cooperate throughout the lessons with Client doing the primary handling of the dog (ie: Client must be present and engaged in the training).

We utilize positive training methods whenever possible, and Trainer will work with training methods agreed upon between Client and Trainer.

We require that Clients inform Trainer of any illnesses their Dog has had. Certain viruses may stay in soil for up to ten years, and we must be informed in order to take proper precautions, even if your dog is currently healthy or has been treated.