Tuition is based on the number of classes held in the school year. Monthly payments are due the first of the month. A credit card number will be required and placed on file at the time of registration. Automatic payment of tuition by credit card each month is possible upon request. This card will be charged after the 10th, if tuition hasn't been paid, a late fee of $25.00 will apply as well. If a student discontinues attending before the end of the school year, the full year of tuition will be due/charged. If a student discontinues attending for a few weeks/months and returns within the same school year, that tuition is still due. There is no refund for missed classes. Classes may be made up within the following month's time. There will be no discussion with the director or staff regarding class level placement or performance casting. Child supervision is not provided outside class hours. Children picked up later than 15 minutes after the studio closes will be assessed a late fee.
