Greetings Windhaven,

The winter months will be upon us swiftly, fear not, there are still many opportunities to take comfort with our cousins and friends. While there may not be as many events this time of year, some of the kingdom's biggest non-camping events are coming up. Boar's Head in CAM in December and Twelfth Night in Nordskog in January. If you are a weary traveler, please talk to other people in the populous about riding together.

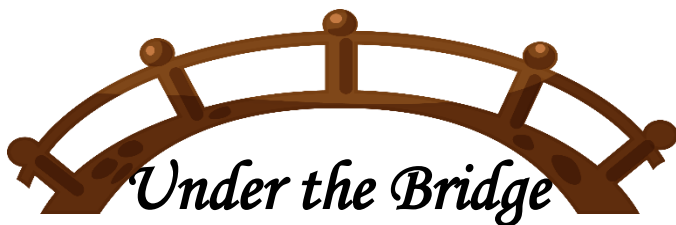

In the Barony we are always looking for ideas and opportunities for classes and fellowship and everything in between. If you have ideas please bring them up at meetings, talk to the appropriate officer and get those ideas out there. If there is something you would like to learn or know more about let those things be known as well. Most of our skills and knowledge are handed down from one person to the next and we would love to not only continue this tradition but help foster it in the Canton and Barony.
