

Thank You

Whether you knew him or not, we must all be thankful for the contribution Mark Hahn made to the sport of PWC legacy are embodied in the Memorial Race Presented by its humble beginning to the February 24, 2018 the Mark world class event, welcoming globe to compete in one of the endurance racing events in the endurance racing. His spirit and Hot Products IJSBA Mark Hahn Yamaha that bears his name. From Fourteenth Annual race held on Hahn Memorial has become a competitors from all parts of the most unique and punishing world.

The 34 teams that competed in this year's event and I owe all the success of this event to Mark's vision and most importantly to all of the great sponsors and workers who make the event possible through their tireless efforts and generous contributions. The number of workers, sponsors, trophies and prizes were greater and along with the announcement of next years Saturday, February 23 race date and after the awards banquet everyone once again pledged to do even more next year for the 15th Annual event.

Those who braved this year's event are to be saluted for they truly endured the greatest test of cold weather anyone has ever seen at Lake Havasu! Every award and trophy were hard earned. The Hot Products Mark Hahn Memorial race presented by Yamaha has always enjoyed an extraordinary amount of favorable coverage in all types of media worldwide, making it one of the most popular events in the world of PWC racing which is the true testament of the great exposure all the sponsors are enjoying.

There are several special people who merit special thanks for their dedication to the Hot Products Mark Hahn Memorial race - presented by Yamaha's fourteen-year growth and success. Tom Perry of Hot Products, Jim Russell of DSM Events, and Ross Wallach, the race director. We all owe a great debt of gratitude to each of them for their tireless dedication over the years!

In addition to the 34 teams that competed I would really like to thank all the others who make this event the huge success that it has become:
