

PATRICIA ANDERSON

Patricia Anderson is the founder of Love in Action! an outreach ministry with the purpose of teaching and demonstrating the love of God to the world. She has produced and hosted a weekly television broadcast, been interviewed on radio and television and is a passionate speaker and writer. She currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia

Book Recap

In this practical guide on love, Patricia Anderson explores loves various facets, actions, forgiveness, fear, and emotions. Most importantly she introduces people to the only way to really find and experience true love through God.

To order call toll free
(877) 421-READ (7323)
www.pleasantwordbooks.com

Interview Questions

1. What do you feel happens to people when times of crisis hit?
2. Why can't this love continue on a daily basis, why does it take a crisis to draw it out?
3. Tell us about bad baggage and how this affects a person's ability to love.
4. What is the greatest factor that keeps people from loving?
5. How can people overcome this if they've really been burned and want to protect themselves?
6. How did you come to realize that love is not a feeling?
7. Tell us about your ministry and how Love in Action! demonstrates that love is indeed a verb and not a feeling.
8. What is the difference between how you loved people before you became a Christian as to how you love them now.
9. You do motivational speaking to youth and adults . . . what do you hope this accomplishes?
10. You previously hosted a TV show called Love in Action! Tell us about your purpose for the show and how it changed lives.

Kevin Cochran
1730 Railroad St. Enumclaw, WA. 98022
(360)802-9758
kevin@winepressgroup.com

Pleasant Word