CLERGY COLUMN

THIS IS A TWO-WEEK BULLETIN

Holy Hour for Ukraine

On Friday, March 25th the Holy Father is going to consecrate the nations of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and plead with our Blessed Lord, through his blessed Mother, for peace in those lands. Our local response should also be one of prayer too! In Oklee on Thursday evening (March 24th) at 6:00 p.m. there will be a Holy Hour with Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Thursday evenings are traditionally a time associated with Eucharistic adoration, because the Last Supper occurred on a Thursday, and Our Lord himself spent the evening after the Last Supper in the garden, praying for what was to come. I hope that parishioners from Oklee, Goodridge, and Grygla will join together at this event to pray for peace in Ukraine and for the conversion of the hearts of the men that initiated this useless and senseless war. Come also to pray in solidarity with the innocent victims of this war. I know it is a long way for some to drive, but consider it a Lenten Sacrifice and a Sacrifice for the people of Ukraine.

Holy Hour at 6:00 p.m.

Thursday, March 24th

Weekly Reflections

“...He said to the gardener, ‘For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.’” (LUKE 13:7)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.

Pope to consecrate Russia, Ukraine to Mary

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Pope Francis will consecrate Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary during a penitential prayer service in St. Peter’s Basilica March 25, the Vatican said.

On the same day, the Vatican said, Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, the papal almoner, will carry out a similar consecration at the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal.

According to the Vatican’s translation of the messages of Fatima, when Mary appeared to the three shepherd children in Fatima in 1917, she told them, “God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved, and there will be peace.”

Warning of “war, famine, and persecutions of the church and of the Holy Father,” Mary told the children, “to prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart.”
