QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

A Mass remembering those who have passed away from our Parish unit in the past year will be celebrated on Tuesday, November 10th at 7:00pm. The Book of the Dead is usually displayed in each of our churches throughout the month of November and parishioners are able to enter the names of their loved ones, but this year, we must do things a little differently. If you wish to have the name of your loved one entered into the book, please call the office at 857-4223 and we will enter the name into the book. The names previously written in the Book of the Dead remain listed from year to year and continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. Preference for attendance at this Mass will be given to families of deceased loved ones. Thank you for your understanding.

The 2020-2021 Missals are currently available at the back of the church or at the Rectory Office at a cost of $5.00 each. You can purchase one by dropping by the office during regular office hours.

UPDATE ON CATECHISM

Given the expectation of an announcement by the Province of NB, and the NB Office of the Chief Medical Officer returning Zone 1, which includes the Archdiocese of Moncton, back to the yellow level on Thursday, October 22nd, physically gathering for catechetical sessions will resume beginning Sunday, October 25th. The only exception for this will, of course, be for those with compromised health care issues, who will continue as usual participating in catechism virtually. Your parish catechetical coordinator will be in touch with you regarding additional details. Thank you for your patience as we navigate through these unprecedented times of frequent changes.

UPCOMING MEETINGS: ADULT FAITH COMMISSION: Tuesday, November 3rd at 6:30 p.m.

SACRAMENT RESOURCE PREPARATION COMMITTEE: Wednesday, November 4th at 2:00.

PARISH CATECHETICAL CORDINATORS: Thursday, November 5th at 6:00. Right now, it is planned that all meetings take place at the Diocesan Offices on York Street. Masks are mandatory. Please use the Dominion Street entrance.

FAITH EXPERIMENTS EXPRESS (VIA ZOOM):

Join Karen and Trevor on Zoom as they share lessons in faith using science experiments that your children (grades 1-6) will do at home. Each session will be approximately one hour and will take place on Mondays (November 9th, November 23rd, and December 14th). Please contact Karen at 387-4198 or ihmccatechism@rogers.com for more information and to register.

Exploring our Faith

Time to Get Back to the Basics

As I sit to write this, the date is October 19th and it has been 214 days since Premier Higgs declared a state of emergency and our province was, in effect, shut down. In church world, there have been 31 Sundays come and go since we were last able to gather as an entire faith community, and not just the ones we could fit in and respect social distancing guidelines. And now (as I write this) we are back in the orange phase, and once again cannot gather in person at all. These times have been difficult indeed, both psychologically and emotionally.

Having said that, I would like to pose the following questions: Where are we spiritually in all of this? How are we continuing to be "church" in a time when a lot of us cannot go to church? Are we still able to encounter Jesus in on line worship or faith formation zoom meetings? I would like to take a moment here and state unequivocally that, for me, the community of believers is where I find the greatest inspiration for my faith journey, so, not being able to gather as a whole has been very difficult. However, as we are taught in our liturgical documents from the Second Vatican Council, Jesus is present to us in more ways than one in our celebration of Eucharist, either on line or in person.

There is a four-fold presence of Christ in every Eucharistic celebration. In the gathered Assembly, the Word proclaimed, the Body and Blood of Christ and in the Presider. These are important things to keep in mind always, but most importantly, now. While gathering as a faith community on line for mass is probably not the ideal, it is still gathering. It is wonderful to see on Sunday mornings, when we are live streaming mass from my home parish, how many people are tuned in and exchanging greetings with one another in the comment portion of Facebook. Even though we are not physically present in the church, we are still experiencing the presence of Christ in this gathered community. We also experience Christ's presence in the Word proclaimed, whether inside the church building or in the sacred space we have created in our homes. Let's not forget that if it is a space used for worship, it is indeed sacred. We still experience Christ in the Presider, who represents Jesus as he presides over the Body of Christ. And while we may feel that without being there to receive communion, we cannot experience the presence of Christ in his Body and Blood, the truth is, the miracle of the bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Christ happens whether we are in the building or not. It just requires us to see it a little bit more through the eyes of faith. Instead of, "I'll believe it when I see it"; it becomes, "I see it because I believe it".

Yes these are trying times for our faith communities, but think of how much more trying for those who do not have a faith community, or even a home. How do they experience Jesus' promise that they would never be alone? This is where we, as a community of believers, take this four-fold presence of Christ which we encounter in Eucharist and bring it face-to-face to the "Jesus of the bread lines". As St. John Chrysostom said, "if you don't find Christ in the beggar at the door, you won't find him in the chalice". This is where the rubber meets the road for those of us who call ourselves Christian. If we can get this right, then when we finally can come back together, "tout ensemble", we will do so with fresh eyes and a new definition of what it truly means to be "CHURCH".
