

The S.A.N.E. Approach to Working with Challenging Dogs

Presented by Kathy Cascade, Physical Therapist and International Tellington Touch Instructor
May 16-17, 2015

Learn positive solutions for common challenging behaviors like...

Separation anxiety, difficulty handling or walking, inappropriate barking, reactivity to people, animals or noise

HOSTED BY*

*A 501 (c)3 nonprofit organization assisting individuals and organizations that foster, adopt or rescue animals by providing low cost educational resources

For more information or to register please

CONTACT

Pam Morgan

info@doingrightbyrescues.org

(609)-955-0248

Titusville, NJ, 08560

What Is The S.A.N.E. Approach?

The Sensible And Non-threatening Education workshop will present effective, kind, tools and techniques which influence an animal's ability to cope with situations they perceive as stressful. The goal is to reduce arousal and reactivity, promote stress free handling, increase trust of people, build confidence and ultimately improve the bond between you and your dog(s).

Who Should Attend?

People who want to improve their relationship with their dog-
People who have tried traditional dog training methods and have not yet achieved the desired relationship-
People who are fostering dogs awaiting adoption-
People who work with dogs-

The Workshop

This limited engagement workshop is designed as a small hands-on experience allowing plenty of individualized work as well as group activities. Instructor Kathy Cascade combines her professional training in physical therapy along with her many years of helping numerous dogs by instructing others via S.A.N.E. Solutions concepts and Tellington Touch Techniques (a way of working with animals which induces a state of relaxation and increased body awareness-beneficial to those on both sides of the leash). This not to be missed, info packed, S.A.N.E. Workshop Event is limited to 8 dogs and 10-12 people. The workshop runs from 9:30-4:30.

The cost of the two day workshop is $210.00 per person or $225.00 per person with a dog. Salad bar type luncheon is included.

Location: View the Doing Right By Rescues six acre, Zen-like training facility in Titusville, NJ at www.doingrightbyrescues.org