Greetings Teen Leader & Debutante Candidates and Parents,

Welcome to the 2019 S.W.A.G.G. Teen Leaders & Debutante Program, where we are raising up a generation of ladies & leaders!

Participating in the S.W.A.G.G. program exposes girls to crucial leadership skills necessary in today's very competitive world. Our members will learn social graces needed in a diverse scope of social environments as well as basic skills related to educational development, relationships, self-worth and community service.

The following weeks will challenge our girls to become leaders and community change agent. Our members will be supported by LadyPamela and Mentors who will work closely with our girls during the duration of the program.

3 This package will answer questions regarding the program which includes our commitment and your daughter's responsibilities. Please take some time to read this informational packet thoroughly to prepare to register for the Teen Leaders & Debutante Program.

Once again welcome to the "Talitha Cumi Urban Etiquette & Leadership" family and a time of great discovery.

Living, Leading & Loving with S.W.A.G.G.

Enrichment Activities

In addition to meeting the academy criteria, to participate in the Debutante ceremony the following three Developmental criteria must be completed

Developmental Criteria I: Outreach Enrichment

Maturing emotionally is a focus of the Talitha Cumi Urban Etiquette and Leadership program. Teen Leaders must collectively take part in an event where they impact the lives of other young ladies, example fashion show, talent night, career day, etc. They must bring in a guest or attend a girl's activity will meet the Outreach enrichment criteria. Activities that lead young ladies to look beyond their self is the goal of this activity.

Development Criteria 2: Personal Enrichment

Teen Leaders will put to practice their social graces during an evening of elegance. The girls host the Academy's annual tea party, where our members will utilize the social graces learned during the program.

Development Criteria 3: Social Enrichment

Teen Leaders will participate in a local community service event in which they have selected and designed. Impacting the community in which we live and serve is a priority of the Talitha Cumi Urban Etiquette and Leadership S.W.A.G.G. program.

Helping others is a covenant step of obedience as we vow as Leaders to reach out and touch the communities in which we live. Community service fosters compassion, creativity and faith in the lives of participants and staff.
