

Join the former illusionist and a master communicator Greg Dwyer for his presentation Magic of Communication: Influencing Yourself and Others to Live the Life of Your Dreams

on Thursday, January 18, at 6:30 pm (snow date – January 25) at the Morris Public Library.

Do you suffer from negative self-talk or low self-esteem? Are you frustrated with others and would like to improve your relationships? How one communicates with self and others is the key to a fulfilled life. Former illusionist Greg Dwyer will share secrets with you on how to create real magic in your life. Based on neuroscience and a little storytelling, Greg will entertain and educate you on the magic of communication.

In this dynamic presentation on communication, Greg Dwyer, will teach you 3 powerful secrets to live the life of your dreams.

- Discover the secret power of focus
- Discover the secret power of non-verbal communication
- Discover the secret power of written goals

All using the power of your mind in a way that you have never experienced before.

Greg Dwyer is a dynamic and mesmerizing keynote speaker, workshop leader and “Use The Power of Your Mind, Former Illusionist Reveals Five Secrets For Your Success” author on a mission to assist you to use the power of their mind in a more effective way. More than just a speaker, Greg provides support training and resources long after your event to assure competence.

Greg is a business and marketing strategist, author and professional speaker on the role communication plays in leadership. As a former illusionist who worked backstage on Doug Henning’s hit Broadway show, The Magic Show, Greg knows the secrets of influence and communication which will make a difference in your personal and professional career. Greg will reveal 3 inside secrets you can apply immediately to increase self-esteem, build rapport, connect, and lead those around you.

Details and registration: 860-567-7440.