

BENGAL HISTORY WEEK

8-16 OCTOBER 2016

Brick Lane Circle's is organising its Seventh Annual Bengal History Week during 8-16 October 2016, which aims to help generate greater levels of interest on the learning of the history of Bengal.

FREE ENTRY!
ALL WELCOME!

SATURDAY, 8 OCTOBER
2016 - Kobi Nazrul Centre, 30
Hanbury St, London E1 6QR

2-2.30pm - Launch of Bangladesh 2021: A critical history initiative

A challenge to all Bangladeshis - help produce fifty great works of Bangladeshi history in five years.

In 2021 Bangladesh will be half a century old as an independent country. To celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Bangladesh Brick Lane Circle invites all interested Bangladeshis to become critical historians and help produce at least fifty great works of history by 2021.

2.30-6pm - Workshops on research methodologies,
sources of information
and history writings.
Details TBC

Sunday 9 October 2016
2.30-4.30pm. Lab 7, Idea Store
Whitechapel

'Citizens' or 'Aliens'?
Lascar settlement in Britain (1900-1946) - by Naina Manjrekar

Monday 10 October 2016,
6.30-8.30pm. Lab 2, Idea Store
Whitechapel

Mental Maps of Pre-Colonial Bengal - by Dr Richard David William

Tuesday 11 October 2016,
6.30-8.30pm. Lab 1, Idea Store
Whitechapel

Migration Plan and its Influence on Integration Strategic among Bangladeshi Migrants in Italy: A first glance at the data - by Valeria Giannuzzi

Wednesday 12 October 2016,
6.30-8.30pm. Idea Store
Whitechapel
Details TBC

Thursday 13 October 2016,
6.30-8.30pm. Lab 1, Idea Store
Whitechapel

The first voyage of the East India Company under Captain James Lancaster (1601-3)
and Edmund Scot's 'A Discourse of Java, and of the first English Factory there, with divers Indian, English,
and Dutch Occurrences' (1602-5) – by Dr M Ahmedullah

Saturday 15 October 2016, 11am-1pm.

Popular East India Company Dockside walk - by Dr Georgie Wemyss

Places are free but advance booking only. Meeting place will be provided to those who are booked on the walk.

Saturday 15 October 2016,
2.45-4.15pm. Idea Store
Whitechapel

Historical evolution of the East London Mosque - by Professor Humayun Ansar OBE

Sunday 16 October 2016
Rich Mix Centre, 35-47 Bethnal
Green Rd, London E1 6LA

2.30-6.30pm
Changing trends of Bangladeshi marriages in the UK - a half a day conference
Details TBC

7.00-8.30pm
Stand-up comedy show -
Details TBC

Wednesday 9 November 2016, 6.30-8.30pm. Date
Rescheduled. Venue TBC

Readings from The Spectral Wound. Sexual Violence, Public Memories and the Bangladesh War of 1971 –
by Dr Nayanika Mookherjee

For further details and to book a place on any of the events please contact: 079141192821 bricklanecircle@yahoo.co.uk or www.bricklanecircle.org

From
Bengal
History
Week
2014

