

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

Please note that the Zoom meeting schedule states the general meeting will start at 6 pm. The meeting will not start until 7 pm. The early time is to accommodate the Quilt Show Committee.

The State Fair judging committee, on behalf of our guild, awarded Joan Ledanski of Pleasant Prairie a cash prize of $75 and a First-Place ribbon for Best Applique Quilt.

At our August meeting we discussed open board positions for the 2023-24 term. Regina Scott Brooks has signed on to be the VP of Planning/Programming. Several positions remain open including Treasurer, Hospitality, Historian and Publicity (two-year terms), President and Secretary (one-year terms). I can assure you if positions are not filled, 2023 will begin without a full board. If you have any questions or wish to be a board member, call me. My closing quote for the month might inspire you to step forward.

Until next month....Real leadership comes from the quiet nudging of an inner voice. It comes from realizing that the time has come to move beyond waiting to doing.-- Madeleine Albright

Upcoming program for September

Borders on Parade

September 26, 2022 presentation by Linda Halpin.

7 pm in person and on Zoom for members only.

Non-members may attend for a $5 fee unless taking the workshop, in which case it is free.

You will want to bring a camera to this one! Borders are not just to make your quilt bigger! Over 3 dozen quilts will be shown, all with different border treatments for your consideration.

How you frame your quilt can be so much more than just four strips of fabric added to the edges. This program explores the wide range of possibilities for border treatments by examining dozens of variations on border treatments. How wide to make borders and lattices as well as making edges that don't ripple, are just a few of the topics to be covered.

Linda will also be presenting a trunk show of 45-50 quilts/quilt tops from her collection that she is downsizing after 45 years of teaching. They are available for purchase and range in size from table toppers to a few queen size. Perfect for those who want a quick gift or want something to practice their quilting skills on.

Homestead Star

Tuesday, September 27, 2022 9 am-4 pm including a 30 minute lunch.

There is a class handout fee of $5, therefore the fee to take the workshop will be $40 for members and $45 for nonmembers.

Take the mystery out of how to put a wide range of fabrics together successfully for a scrap quilt. From there, you will have the fun of learning new piecing techniques in which the pieces you cut away to make the Homestead Star are used to make a bonus quilt. Make use of every bit of fabric!

This workshop is for all levels of proficiency.
Students should be comfortable with their sewing machines.

There is enough interest to hold the workshop, but there is still room for more! Please send email jweiss10@wi.rr.com if you would like to take the workshop. You will also need to send a check for the workshop fee to secure your spot.

No refund for cancellations at this point, but you can find someone to take your spot.

In Case You Missed It

Regina Scott Brooks has volunteered additional time to the guild. Not only does she collect and deliver quilts to the veterans, she will also serve as VP of Planning/Programming. She is not new to the board having served in several positions through the years. Welcome back Regina!

Membership discussed and the majority approved a Holiday Party in November. Nancy Fenske is our Hospitality Chair and the board will be discussing further plans with her.

Cathy Rolfson has the library open and available to you at every guild meeting. Make sure you check it out and offer her any suggestions you may have for new books.

Keep informed by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Guild Meeting

August 29, 2022

In-Person and Zoom Virtual Meeting

Forty Guild members welcomed Christopher Weinhold in-person, and 23 members joined him on-line. Christopher is fascinated by illusion quilts, exploring their structure and the ways they use the play of color and the play of light to create designs. While these quilts have been around for centuries, they have become more popular in recent years. Christopher provided several examples of the quilts he has created and talked about the ways he constructed designs for them. His quilt patterns are available at Quiltagious Quilts in Mukwonago.

In the business meeting, Guild members discussed the holiday party and voted to have a sit-down party as we have done in past years. Members recommended making simpler party plans for this first time back together in several years.

Pat Henningfeld mentions that any Guild member is welcome to join any Board meeting via zoom. She was also happy to announce that Regina Scott Brooks has agreed to serve at VP of Planning during the coming year.

Open Board positions beginning in 2023 include: hospitality, historian, publicity, president and secretary. Please consider volunteering to serve on the Board. It was recommended that we email the membership list to current members with a notice of these open positions.

Regina Scott Brooks reminded Guild members that quilts for veterans will be collected in October. Twin size quilts for both men and women are needed. Debbie Blaustein announced that she can quilt charity quilts members want to donate.

The Great Wisconsin Quilt Show

This year's Great Wisconsin Quilt show in Madison was "in person" for the first time since 2020 and included gorgeous prize winning quilts, awesome vendors, several special exhibits and a spectacular quilt by our own Grace Kragness!

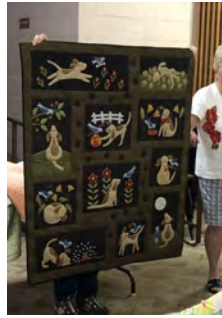

August 2022 Meeting

The August meeting featured Christopher Weinhold who dazzled us with his slide and trunk show of illusion quilts, illustrating the use of dark and light as well as the use of different angles to create spectacular designs. Earlier that day, he conducted a workshop demonstrating how to construct his Escher quilts. Christopher's plentiful trunk show, as well as his slide show, included many examples of the quilts he has created and he explained his design and construction techniques. His quilt patterns are available at Quiltagious Quilts in Mukwonago. Helping with the presentation are Yvonne Parks and Penny Schilz, owner of Quiltagious Quilts.

~ Library Talk ~

Coming soon to our Library!

Enjoy this new series from Ann Hazelwood, The Door County Quilt Series. This first novel introduces you to Claire Stewart and her life in beautiful Door County, Wisconsin. Claire Stewart, a new resident of the county, joins a prestigious small quilting club when her best friend moves away. Claire is a watercolor quilt artist, and the beauty of Door County captivates her right away. Claire's new friends and her quilt group provide fun, but it's the man with the red scarf who intrigues her. As she grows more comfortable after escaping a bad relationship, new ideas and surprises abound as friendships, quilting, and her love life all change for the better.

Lighthouse Legacies Quilt Show

Quilt Show Update

Kitty Friend will kick off our first meeting at 6pm, September 26th. We will meet at the church at 6pm before the scheduled guild meeting. At this time we want to make sure we have a full roster of volunteers and get some ideas of people that we can approach at the guild meeting to fill in the open spots.

We especially want to target someone for set-up and take-down. This could be the same person. They don't have to do all of the heavy lifting, they round up a group of folks to help and be there to supervise.

CRAYON CHALLENGE FOR 2023 QUILT SHOW!

We can do this one in person next month!! I will be sitting next to the Membership Table for you to pick your little baggie with a Crayon and the Rules. NO, you cannot choose your color! NO, you cannot exchange colors with a friend. What YOU pick is what YOU use.

The rules give you guidance and the only rule you must follow is "Get It Done On Time!"

For those of you who are still doing just Zoom but still want to make a Crayon Challenge, please contact me by e-mail AS OF OCTOBER 17 with your request. If there are any left at 7 pm on Monday, October 31, I will choose yours in the DATE ORDER of the e-mails sent ~ first e-mail date gets picked followed by second e-mail date, etc.

Thanks and I hope all the Crayons get chosen. All the money bid for these little quilts will be donated to Bethany House.

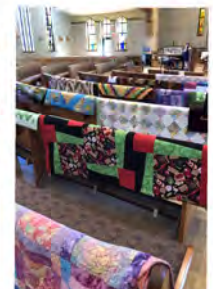

If you have any questions or need to request a Crayon by e-mail, please contact me at qltingb@gmail.com
