

Singleton, Roy

Roy Singleton, 93, of Lake Worth, Fla., passed away on June 2, 2000, after a valiant fight with cancer. He was born to Martha and Joseph Singleton on March 16, 1907, in Caseville. He was raised on Charity Island where his father was the lighthouse keeper. Roy grew up in Michigan and Minnesota, moving to Florida in his later years for health reasons. He worked as a lumberjack, sailor and assistant lighthouse keeper and for the Michigan Highway Department. An avid hunter and fisherman, Roy found wonder in each day. His generally happy disposition was admired and often envied by his friends, relatives and acquaintances. Roy is survived by three daughters, numerous grandchildren, and a host of friends throughout Michigan, Maine and Florida. He was preceded in death by his wives, Layle Forrest Singleton and Ruth Tappen Singleton. A memorial service was conducted June 10, 2000, at Grace Presbyterian Church in Lantana, Fla., with the Rev. Ron Hugill officiating. Inurnment was in Evergreen Cemetery in Alpena. Memorials may be made to the Crisp Point Light Historical Society, P.O. Box 229, Paradise, MI 49768. Arrangements were handled by Dorsey Funeral Home in Lake Worth.
